FOREWORD

The Constitution requires each house of the General Assembly to keep a Journal of its proceedings. The Journal is intended to assure a public account of legislative activity and constitutes the final official record of action by the General Assembly.

Under the provisions of Sections 6.161, 6.162 and 57.151 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, the Legislative Research Commission is responsible for comparing, editing, correcting, and publishing the Journals as approved by each house of the General Assembly. This Journal represents the fulfillment of this obligation for the Regular Session of the House of Representatives of 1992.

The text of a bill is spread in full when it receives a first reading. The vote on passage of a bill is indicated upon its receipt of a third reading, or upon concurrence by the originating house in amendments by the second house. Simple and concurrent resolutions are printed on first reading when applicable or when adopted, and joint resolutions are treated as bills. A table of actions on bills and resolutions is appended. Roll calls on motions to pass legislation have been compiled in an Appendix.

Mrs. Jean Wallace and Mrs. Wilda Bond prepared House Journal for the Regular Session of 1992. The edited copy and index in this Journal reflect the cooperative efforts of the Commission's staff.

Representative Stumbo moved the adoption of the following HR 3:

HR 3, A RESOLUTION adopting rules of the House of Representatives for the 1992 Regular Session of the General Assembly.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Rule 1. Hours of Meeting. The House shall meet at times set by the Committee on Committees.

Rule 2. Quorum. A majority of the members elected to the House shall constitute a quorum. If a quorum is not present at the time fixed for a meeting of the House, five members may adjourn or recess from day to day or from time to time and fifteen members may order a call of the House and send for absent members.

Rule 3. Call of the House. Upon a call of the House, the Clerk shall call the roll. Absentees are then only noted, but no excuses shall be made until the full roll is called. The Clerk shall then call the absentees again. Excuses will be heard at this time. The doors of the House Chamber shall then be closed and the absentees not excused by the House may be sent for and arrested by the Sergeant-at-Arms and the House shall determine upon what conditions they shall be discharged from arrest. Members who voluntarily appear shall be immediately admitted to the floor of the House and names returned upon the Journal as present unless the House otherwise directs. Excuses for leaves of absence must receive a consent approval of 2/3 of the members elected.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

Rule 4. Order of Business. The order of business shall be as follows:

1. Invocation.
2. Roll Call.
3. Reading and Approval of the Journal.
4. Introduction and Reading of New Bills and Resolutions Introduced by Title and Sponsor.
5. Report of Reference of Bills to Committees.
6. Report of Committees.
7. First Reading of Bills.
8. Second Reading of Bills.
9. Orders of the Day.
10. Motions, Petitions and Communications.
11. Announcements.
12. Adjournment.

No more than thirty minutes shall be allotted to Motions, Petitions and Communications.

Rule 5. Unfinished Business. Unfinished business which was being considered upon adjournment shall have precedence in the class of business to which it properly belongs upon the next succeeding legislative day.

MOTIONS

Rule 6. Reading of Motions. When a motion has been made and seconded, it shall be stated by the Speaker, or, being in written form, it shall be read by the Clerk before debate, amendment or motion concerning it shall be in order.

Rule 7. Withdrawal of Motions. Every oral motion after it has been stated by the Speaker, and every written motion, bill, resolution or other paper, after it has been read by the Clerk, shall be the property and in the possession of the House and shall not be withdrawn without consent of the House. Every written motion, report or measure may be committed or recommitted at the pleasure of the House.

Rule 8. Order of Questions. All questions, whether in Committee of the Whole or in the House, when not privileged questions, shall be propounded in the order in which they were moved, except that in filling blanks the smallest sum and the most remote date shall be put first.

Rule 9. Precedence of Motions. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be in order except:

1. To call the House when there is no quorum present.
2. To fix the time to which the House shall adjourn.
3. To adjourn.
4. To take recess.
5. To lay on the table.
6. For the previous question.
7. To limit or extend limits of debate.
8. To postpone to a fixed time.
9. To lay on the Clerk's desk.
10. To refer or commit.
11. To amend.
12. To postpone indefinitely.

The above several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged and the first seven of them shall not be debatable.

A second motion to adjourn, to take a recess, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to limit or extend limits of debate, to postpone to a time certain, to lay on the Clerk's desk, to refer or commit or to postpone indefinitely shall not be in order on the same day, upon the same question, and at the same status unless other business intervenes; provided, however, that amendments may be made to the time to which it is proposed to adjourn, to take a recess or to postpone to a fixed time.

Rule 10. Motion to Adjourn. A motion to adjourn, to take a recess, or a motion to adjourn to a time certain, shall always be in order, except when a member is speaking, while a vote is being taken or when the Committee on Committees is reporting; subject, however, to the limitations set out in Rule 9. A motion to adjourn or a motion to adjourn to a time certain shall be taken by roll call vote.

Rule 11. Motion to Table. The adoption of the motion to table, under these rules, defeats the subject matter under consideration. The reconsideration of the motion to table shall require approval of a majority of the members elected.

Rule 12. Previous Question. When the previous question has been ordered, a vote shall be taken immediately upon the pending measure and such pending amendments as are in order. The effect of the previous question shall be to put an end to all debate; to prevent the offering of additional amendments and to bring the House to an immediate vote upon the measure and amendments aforesaid. The previous question may be ordered by a majority of the members elected. On the call of the roll, no member shall be allowed to speak more than three minutes to explain his vote and shall not speak at all if the question is not a debatable question. After the previous question has been ordered, and before the vote upon the main question, the opponents of the measure shall have ten minutes, and proponents of the measure shall have ten minutes.

Rule 13. Motion to Set the Limits on Debate. A motion to set a time limit for debate on a measure, in excess of that permitted under Rule 12, shall be in order unless the previous question shall have been ordered on the measure. The time limit set for debate under this rule shall be allotted by the Speaker evenly between the opponents of the measure and the proponents of the measure. Adoption of a motion under this rule does not prevent the offering of additional amendments.

Rule 14. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider a vote shall not be in order unless made by a member who voted upon the prevailing side of the question; nor shall such motion be in order unless made within two legislative days in which the House is in session next after the date the vote was taken; however, the motion to reconsider when coupled with the additional motion to lay that motion upon the table may be made by any member.

Rule 15. Motion to Lay on Clerk's Desk. The effect of the adoption of a motion to lay on the Clerk's desk under these rules is to place in charge of the Clerk the pending question and everything adhering to it. A motion laid on the Clerk's desk may be taken from the desk and proceeded with at any time in the same order as when laid on the Clerk's desk.

Rule 16. Motion to Strike Out Enacting Clause. A motion to amend by striking out the enacting words of a bill or resolution shall have precedence over a motion to amend; and, if adopted, shall have the same effect as though the bill or resolution were regularly voted upon and rejected.

Rule 17. Motion to Separate Part of a Measure. A motion to commit, recommit, or postpone a part of a measure so as to separate that part of the measure from the remainder shall not be in order.

Rule 18. Postponement of Measure. When a measure shall have been postponed indefinitely it shall not be in order again during the session.

Rule 19. Reading of Pending Papers. Any pending bill, resolution, motion or report shall be read by the Clerk upon the demand of any member, but it shall not again be read on the same day unless so ordered by the House.

Rule 20. Nominations. In all elections a previous nomination shall be made.

MEMBERS

Rule 21. Attendance of Members. No member shall absent himself from a session of the House without leave from the House. Written request for leave of absence may be obtained from the Clerk of the House and shall be submitted to the Speaker. The request shall state thereon the member's excuse for obtaining the leave. No excuse for leave of absence shall be heard from the floor.

Rule 22. Decorum of Members. No member shall designate another member by name.

Rule 23. Call to Order. If any member, in speech or otherwise, transgress the rules of order or decorum, he shall immediately be called to order by the chair and shall take his seat. The Clerk shall reduce the objectionable words to writing and read them to the House. After hearing a short explanation from the member called to order, or upon the withdrawal of the objectionable language, the Speaker may permit the member to proceed, or may compel silence upon him until the matter is disposed of. The ruling of the chair shall be subject to an appeal to the House. A member offending the House shall be liable to censure.

Rule 24. Debate. No member may speak more than once to the same subject until all members desiring to be heard have spoken, but nothing in this rule shall do away with the previous question if then in effect, nor permit debate on an undebatable motion.

No member shall speak more than thirty minutes in the aggregate on any question or measure, at the end of which period, or any portion thereof, the floor shall be returned to the Speaker.

Rule 25. Members Shall Vote at Seats. A member shall vote only when at his seat or visibly approaching it.

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Rule 26. Duties of Speaker. The Speaker shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour fixed for the meeting of the House and on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read, unless the reading of the same is dispensed with by the House.

The Speaker shall preserve decorum and order and, in the event of any disorder in the gallery or in the House Chamber, may cause the same to be cleared of any persons creating disturbances or disorders.

All writs, warrants, subpoenas or other processes shall be signed by the officer who may be presiding over the House when the paper is issued; and his signature shall be attested by the Clerk, when ordered by a majority of the members.

Rule 27. Appeal from Decision of Chair. The Speaker while presiding may speak to points of order in preference to members. He shall decide points of order and manner of procedure. If two or more members arise from their respective seats and address the chair, the Speaker shall determine who was first and recognize him.

Any decision made by the Speaker shall be subject to appeal to the House. Every such appeal shall be in writing and signed by at least two members. During the pendency of an appeal to the House from a decision of the chair, the Speaker shall vacate the chair and call the Speaker Pro Tempore to preside. When the Speaker Pro Tempore is presiding on an appeal to the House from a decision of the Chair, no motion or business shall be in order except the motion on appeal from the decision of the Chair, and that motion shall not be debatable.

Rule 28. Speaker Pro Tempore. The House shall elect a Speaker Pro Tempore. The Speaker Pro Tempore shall perform the duties of the Speaker when the Speaker is absent from the House or when empowered by the Speaker to perform the duties of the chair.

Rule 29. Duties of Legislative Research Commission. The Legislative Research Commission shall have charge of all clerical, technical and procedural matters which relate to legislation including but not limited to: notification of committees of their appointment and business referred to them; keeping a calendar showing such bills as are entitled to their second reading each day, distinguishing between House and Senate bills; superintend the engrossing and enrolling of bills; and such other matters as are assigned by the Committee on Committees.

Rule 29A. Duties of Clerk. The Clerk shall have charge of clerical and administrative functions not assigned to the Legislative Research Commission and shall cooperate with the Commission to facilitate the work of the House. The Clerk shall perform such other duties as are assigned by the Committee on Committees.

Rule 30. Journal of Proceedings. The Legislative Research Commission shall cause to be kept the Journal of the proceedings of the House. The Commission staff shall note upon the Journal all questions of order, together with the disposition of same, and the dates upon which all bills and resolutions were sent to committee and returned to the House. The House may correct errors in the Journal the day the Journal containing errors is presented to the House. No record which is in the hands of the Commission staff and is required by law to be entered upon the Journal of the House shall be copied by any person until same shall have been entered upon the Journal and said Journal shall have been approved.

Half an hour before the time fixed for the meeting of the House each day, the Commission staff shall be present at the Clerk's desk with the Journal of the preceding session for inspection of any member of the House.

The Journal for each day, as soon as it has been approved by the House, shall be delivered by the Commission staff to the public printer. The Commission staff shall proofread and index the Journal upon return from the printer and make necessary typographical corrections.

Rule 31. Custody of Papers. The Legislative Research Commission shall have custody of all records, minutes, reports, and documents pertaining to legislation, and shall not allow them to be taken from its possession without the leave of the House, unless to be delivered to the chairman of a committee to which they have been referred. The Legislative Research Commission shall cause to be enclosed on bills and papers brief notes of proceedings had thereon by the House and preserve the same in convenient files for reference.

Rule 32. Accounts of Expenditures. The Legislative Research Commission shall keep the accounts for pay and mileage of members, officers and attaches, and for printing and other contingent expenses of the House and Senate.

Rule 33. Printing of House Papers. The Legislative Research Commission shall have supervision and charge of all printing done for the House as certified by the Clerk and the public printer shall print only such documents and other matter as the Legislative Research Commission authorizes. The Clerk shall report to the Speaker every failure to execute printing work correctly and promptly.

Rule 34. Duties of the Sergeant-at-Arms. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms and the Doorkeeper to exclude or remove all persons not entitled to the floor of the House. One hour before convening of the House each day the Sergeant-at-Arms shall announce in a loud, distinct voice: "All persons not entitled to the floor of the House under the rules thereof will now vacate the House Chamber." He shall then compel all persons who are not entitled to remain therein to leave the House Chambers and shall prohibit their entry until one hour after the House has adjourned.

Rule 35. Appointment and Conduct of Constitutional Employees. The constitutional employees of the House shall be appointed by election during the organizational and regular sessions of the General Assembly and shall serve one year terms or until the election of their successors.

All the constitutional employees of the House, shall, one hour before the meeting of the House each day, report to the Clerk, who shall report to the Committee on Committees whether or not all of said employees are on duty. The Committee on Committees, whenever it deems it necessary, shall report to the House any dereliction of duty.

All other professional, clerical and other services required by the House or its committees shall be furnished by the Legislative Research Commission, upon the request of the Committee on Committees. Employees performing such services shall be under the supervision of the Committee on Committees.

Each member shall be given an opportunity upon request to appear before the Rules Committee when a bill of which he is a sponsor or co-sponsor is under consideration including the subsequent vote thereon. No measure shall be posted in the Orders of the Day for final passage except by order of the Rules Committee unless otherwise ordered posted for the next succeeding legislative day by a majority of the members voting. The Rules Committee shall arrange the Orders of the Day so that all measures shall appear thereon for the consideration of the House, but the Rules Committee may not place in the Orders of the Day any bill or other measure in the possession of a standing or special committee of the House. The Rules Committee, prior to each day's session, shall post a notice in a regular place in the House Chamber listing the bills to be considered that day in the Orders of the Day. Should the House not complete any day's Orders of the Day, the bills and resolutions remaining unconsidered shall go to the top of the Orders of the Day on the next day that Orders of the Day are considered.

The Speaker of the House shall act as Chairman of the Rules Committee. The Majority Floor Leader of the House shall act for the Rules Committee in calling from the Orders of the Day any bills or resolutions in the order he deems proper and shall be recognized by the Speaker for said purpose during all times that the Rules Committee is in charge of posting the Orders of the Day. The Speaker Pro Tempore shall act as chairman in the absence of the Speaker.

Rule 42. Liaison Subcommittees: The Committee on Appropriations and Revenue shall be divided into the following six standing subcommittees of seven members each:

1. Subcommittee on Economic Development and Energy, Natural Resources, and Environmental Protection;
2. Subcommittee on Education;
3. Subcommittee on General Government, Finance, and Public Protection;
4. Subcommittee on Human Resources;
5. Subcommittee on Justice and Judiciary;
6. Subcommittee on Transportation.

On four of the subcommittees, as designated by the Committee on Committees, four members shall be members of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue designated by the chairman of such committee, and three members shall be appointed by the Committee on Committees from the membership of one or more of the remaining standing committees of the House. On the remaining two subcommittees, either three or four members shall be appointed by the Committee on Committees from the membership of one or more of the remaining standing committees of the House, and the remaining members shall be members of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue designated by the chairman of such committee. The chairman of each standing subcommittee shall be appointed by the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue from the membership of such committee on the particular standing subcommittee.

The liaison subcommittee members of the standing subcommittee shall have full voting authority in all matters before the standing subcommittee.

Rule 42A. Budget Review. The standing budget review subcommittees shall notify the membership of the standing substantive committees whose jurisdictional area will be affected by their action of any meetings or hearings and the members of the standing committees may participate as non-voting members.

When the budget review subcommittees have concluded their hearings and formulated their recommendations they shall communicate their recommendations to the affected standing committee or committees who may thereafter file a written response to the recommendations, which response shall be transmitted to the full Committee on Appropriations and Revenue with the subcommittee recommendations.

When the full Committee on Appropriations and Revenue has reported the final budget bill or bills to the floor, it shall notify the affected standing committees of the content of the budget relating to their areas of jurisdiction.

Any budget bill reported out of the Committee on Appropriations and Revenue shall be accompanied by a detailed explanation of modifications of the original budget. The Rules Committee shall not post for passage any budget bill less than five days after the bill has been finally reported out of committee.

Rule 43. Enrollment Committee. The Committee on Committees shall appoint an Enrollment Committee of not more than seven members. The Enrollment Committee shall be responsible for the engrossment and enrollment of bills and resolutions under the Rules of this House.

Rule 44. Committee on Conference. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and the House refuses to concur in said amendment, or when a Senate bill has been amended in the House and the Senate refuses to concur in said amendment and when neither will recede from such action, the Committee on Committees shall appoint a Committee on Conference to meet a like committee from the Senate. The Committee on Conference shall confer with the Senate Committee and report back to the House within a reasonable time, in the same manner as reports are made for House bills. The conference report shall make no recommendation other than agreement upon or rejection of the matter or matters in controversy, and shall be voted upon, and, if adopted the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage.

Should a committee on conference report its inability to submit a report, or if either house refuses to adopt its report, each house may appoint a committee on free conference, consisting of three or more members. A committee on free conference shall propose no new appropriation or any appropriation above the level originally designed by either chamber. The free conference report shall be voted on, and if adopted, the bill shall immediately be put upon its final passage.

Except for report of disagreement, the question of consideration of the report of a conference committee or a free conference committee shall not be in order on the same legislative day as distribution of copies of the report together with a staff analysis of the report to the members of the House.

Rule 45. Meetings of Committees. No committee except the Committee on Committees, the Committee on Enrollment and a Committee on Conference between the House and the Senate shall sit while the House is in session, unless by consent of the House. The Committee on Committees and Committee on Enrollment may report at any time except during roll call or while a vote is being taken.

The Committee on Committees, in conference with committee chairmen, shall schedule a definite time and place for the regular weekly meetings of each committee, such schedule to be posted in the House Chamber and published in the Legislative Record. A committee shall meet at the regular weekly scheduled time and place so long as business is pending before the committee. Nothing herein shall prevent the Chairman or a majority of any committee from calling a special meeting in addition to those regularly scheduled.

The Chairman shall keep a record of the attendance of members at meetings, which record shall be filed with the Clerk.

The Director of the Legislative Research Commission, under the direction of the Committee on Committees, shall assign a secretary to each committee and provide any professional, clerical or other employees required by any committee.

The Committee on Committees shall meet on call of the Speaker or on call of a majority of the members of the Committee on Committees.

Rule 46. Committee Reports. No bill or resolution shall be considered by the House except on report of committee. Upon the call of standing committees, the Clerk or the Chairman or ranking member of the committee may report the bill in the following manner:

"With the expression of opinion that the same should pass," or

"With the expression of opinion that the same should pass, with the committee amendment attached thereto," or

"With the expression of opinion that the same should pass, with the committee substitute attached thereto," or

"With the expression of opinion that the same should not pass."

Rule 47. Majority and Minority Reports. It shall require a majority of the committee membership to report a bill. The chairman shall keep a record of the vote of each member on the disposition of each bill, and shall report the total vote on each side to the House. The chairman may sign reports on behalf of a majority of the committee members. His signature shall attest to the action of a majority, but shall not be construed as his personal approval or disapproval of the bill.

A committee report may be accompanied by a minority report, signed by those members who have dissented from the committee's report, and it shall be in order to move the adoption of the minority report as a substitute for the committee's report when the committee offers its report. It shall require a majority of the members elected to adopt the minority report. The committee's report shall always be read before the minority report is read.

Rule 48. Failure to Report. Whenever a committee fails or refuses to report within a reasonable time a bill submitted to it, any member may by filing with the Clerk a written request signed by twenty-five or more members, call the same up for consideration on the next succeeding legislative day after the filing of said request. If a majority of the members elected to the House concur therein, the bill shall be considered as though it had been regularly reported.

Rule 49. Procedure in Committee. The rules of procedure in the House shall be observed in committee insofar as the same are applicable. The committee chairman, or the committee by majority vote in a regularly called meeting, shall post at least three calendar days prior to their consideration the bills and resolutions to be considered by the committee at its next meeting provided that no bill or resolution shall be posted by the chairman or the committee by a majority vote unless and until a request for posting form has been filed with the committee chairman or secretary and approved as containing satisfactory information by the committee chairman. No measure shall be considered except those posted. A list of the measures to be considered shall be filed with the Clerk at least three calendar days prior to the meeting. In the case of prefiled bills receiving a favorable expression from the interim joint committee to which they were assigned, posting by the chairman or the committee shall occur during the first week of the session, and such bills shall be considered by the appropriate committee during the first three weeks of the session. No posting request shall be required for such prefiled bills. This rule does not apply to bills with a fiscal impact of more than $20,000.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Rule 50. Form of Bills. All bills introduced shall be printed on the computerized bill preparation system of the Legislative Research Commission, and none otherwise prepared shall be accepted for introduction. Bills shall be offered as one original and three distinctly legible copies. Identical bills for introduction in the other chamber may be exact reproductions of original bill provided one copy is authenticated by the Director of the Legislative Research Commission as the original to be introduced in the other chamber. The original shall be the official bill, and shall be retained by the Legislative Research Commission staff for the use of the House until engrossed and sent to the Senate. A replacement original of a bill, generated pursuant to these Rules, shall thereafter be considered the original and official bill. One copy shall be used by committees; one copy shall be for the use of the press and shall be given to a person designated by the Press Club; and one copy shall be retained by the Legislative Research Commission for its work file. Each copy shall be backed with a protective cover, as provided for this purpose by the Legislative Research Commission. The title of the bill, or a portion thereof, and the signature of the member introducing the bill shall be placed on each cover.

In all bills, as introduced and as printed, any new matter contained therein shall be underscored; and when an amendment proposes the omission or elimination of matter in an existing law, such omission or elimination shall be indicated on the bill by placing the material proposed to be eliminated in brackets, and by striking through the words to be omitted or eliminated with a single line so as not to render such words illegible. In any bill seeking to repeal existing sections of the Kentucky Revised Statutes said sections sought to be repealed shall be identified by way of inclusion of the headnotes applied to each such section as it appears in the Kentucky Revised Statutes. The Legislative Research Commission staff shall see that all bills introduced have been prepared through the computerized bill preparation system of the Legislative Research Commission.

Rule 51. Introduction of Bills. Bills and resolutions may be introduced by filing them with the Bill Introduction Clerk in her office at any time the same is open. Bills and resolutions introduced by filing them with the Bill Introduction Clerk after the House has concluded Item 4, in Rule 4, Order of Business, shall be considered as having been introduced the next succeeding legislative day. The Bill Introduction Clerk shall number bills in the order received and transmit a copy immediately after introduction on the House floor to the Committee on Committees for reference to committee. No bill or resolution having the force of law shall be introduced after the thirty-eighth legislative day of the session. The last two legislative days preceding the veto recess shall be reserved by the House exclusively for the business of concurring in amended House bills.

Rule 52. Fiscal Note Required. A sponsor of a measure may at any time prior to the filing of a request for posting form require a fiscal analysis to be made by the Legislative Research Commission upon the same and a fiscal note attached thereto.

The chairman of the committee to which the measure has been referred may, at any time after a request for posting form is filed with the committee by the sponsor, determine that a fiscal analysis is required on any measure not carrying a fiscal note. The chairman upon such determination shall cause a fiscal analysis to be made by the Legislative Research Commission and a fiscal note attached prior to posting the measure for consideration.

After posting the measure, a majority of the committee may determine that a fiscal analysis is required on any measure not already carrying a fiscal note and shall direct the same to be accomplished and fiscal note attached with all dispatch. A committee may consider any measure on the date for which it is posted even if it is determined by the committee on that date that a fiscal analysis is required, however, no final action shall be taken by the committee upon said measure until a fiscal note is presented to the committee and attached to the measure.

Any member proposing to amend from the floor a bill or resolution which carries a fiscal note or if the proposed amendment itself carries a fiscal implication, the member proposing the amendment shall cause a fiscal analysis of the amendment to be made and a fiscal note attached to the proposed amendment at the time of introduction. In the event an amendment is introduced without a fiscal note, any member may raise the question of fiscal implication to the amendment by a motion and by majority vote require a fiscal analysis to be made and a fiscal note attached to the amendment. If a fiscal analysis and note is required by the membership, action on the bill or resolution to be amended along with the proposed amendment shall be passed over in the Orders of the Day but retained in the Orders of the Day. A fiscal note required by the membership shall be filed and attached to the amendment prior to the convening of the session of the next legislative day. In the event it is impossible to complete the analysis and prepare a fiscal note before the convening of the session on the next legislative day, the Director of the Legislative Research Commission shall so advise the membership by letter and state a time in which the same can be completed and filed with the House.

If the Director of the Legislative Research Commission certifies that the fiscal note cannot be completed within the prescribed time, the amendment shall not be in order unless the members, by majority vote, determine either: (1) act on the amendment and the bill or resolution without the benefit of the fiscal note, or to (2) pass over the bill or resolution in the Orders of the Day and allow it to be retained in the Orders of the Day until the fiscal note is filed.

Rule 52A. Local Mandate Impact Statement. Any bill which relates to any aspect of local government or any service provided thereby shall be analyzed by the Legislative Research Commission for its fiscal impact upon local governments and if determined to contain a local mandate shall have a local mandate impact statement attached prior to final consideration.

No measure which contains a local mandate shall be placed in the Orders of the Day until the local mandate impact statement is attached unless the requirement of the statement has been waived by a vote of two-thirds of all members of the House.

Any member proposing to amend from the floor a bill which contains a local mandate or if the proposed amendment itself contains a local mandate, shall cause a fiscal analysis of the amendment to be made and a local mandate impact statement attached to the proposed amendment. Until such time as the local mandate impact statement is prepared and attached to the amendment, action on the bill to be amended along with the proposed amendment shall be passed over in the Orders of the Day but retained in the Orders of the Day.

Rule 52B. Corrections Impact Statement. Any bill which relates to any aspect of state or local corrections or any service provided thereby, including any bill which creates or modifies any criminal penalty, shall be analyzed by the staff of the Legislative Research Commission for its fiscal and corrections population impact upon state and local governments and shall have a fiscal and population impact statement attached prior to final consideration. No measure which relates to any aspect of state or local corrections shall be placed in the Orders of the Day until the corrections impact statement is attached. Any member proposing an amendment from the floor which relates to state or local corrections shall cause a corrections impact statement to be prepared and attached to the proposed amendment. Until the time the corrections impact statement is prepared and attached to the amendment, action on the bill to be amended along with the proposed amendment shall be passed over in the Orders of the Day but retained in the Orders of the Day. The requirement for the corrections impact statement may be waived by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of all members of the House.

Rule 53. Proposed Administrative Regulations. (1) Before committee consideration of any bill originating in the House, which contains the authority for any agency, board or political subdivision of state government to promulgate regulations, the bill shall have attached a copy of a statement of legislative intent for the bill, including a summary of guidelines to be followed in preparing regulations pursuant to the bill.

Every committee shall have the exclusive right to determine whether the summary submitted meets the requirements of this rule. The committee may waive the provisions of this rule by majority vote, and shall acknowledge on its committee report the receipt of and consideration of the matters submitted with the bill pursuant to this rule.

The purpose of the requirements of this rule is to inform the House of the general scope of the regulations authorized by the bill and to provide a permanent record of legislative intent; and pursuant thereto, when any bill subject to the provisions of this rule becomes law the Director of the Legislative Research Commission shall cause to be filed with the Administrative Regulation Review Subcommittee of the Legislative Research Commission the summary of the regulations submitted with the bill to be used by the Administrative Regulation Review Subcommittee when reviewing regulations promulgated pursuant to the bill. The Administrative Regulation Review Subcommittee shall use the material submitted with the bill to determine legislative intent.

Nothing contained in this rule shall preclude the promulgation of regulations differing from those filed or summarized and submitted with the bill.

(2) This amendment of the Rules of the House of Representatives shall apply only to bills introduced after February 5, 1980.

Rule 54. Rejected Administrative Regulations. When an administrative regulation has been referred by the Clerk to a standing committee of the House, the committee shall review the regulation and take such action as it deems appropriate. If the committee recommends rejection it must set forth in its report the reasons for its rejection which shall be for either of the following reasons, or both: (1) The administrative regulation does not conform to statutory authority. (2) It does not carry out legislative intent.

Unless the House and Senate committees both recommend rejection of the regulation in their committee reports and the committee reports are thereafter adopted by at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, and a majority of the members voting, the regulation shall become effective.

When a House committee report recommending rejection has been adopted by the House as set forth above, the House Clerk shall so notify the Clerk of the Senate.

If both the Senate and the House have approved committee reports recommending rejection of a regulation, a report to that effect shall be signed by both clerks and sent to the promulgating agency and the regulations compiler. A copy of this report shall be on file in the office of the Clerk of the Senate and in the office of the Clerk of the House.

Proposed regulations that have been properly laid before the General Assembly shall become effective upon sine die adjournment of the General Assembly unless the General Assembly in regular session shall disapprove the proposed regulation.

Rule 55. Reference of Bills. The Committee on Committees shall refer all bills to the proper standing committee not later than the second day in which the House is in session after the date of introduction. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and has been returned to the House for concurrence in the amendment, it may be referred to a committee in the same manner as original bills are referred. Bills originating in and passed by the Senate when reported to the House shall be referred to the Committee on Committees and shall take the same course as other bills.

Rule 56. Printing of Bills. Upon receipt of a bill, the Legislative Research Commission shall examine the form of the bill to ensure that it is free from errors of form or typography and has been assigned the proper KRS section or chapter numbers. If a formal change is necessary the Commission shall request the sponsor of the bill to sign a form approving the specified changes. If a bill is found to be correct, or corrections have been approved, the Commission shall authorize its printing.

The Legislative Research Commission shall have printed at least two hundred copies of each bill or resolution carrying the force and effect of law introduced in the House and of each bill or resolution carrying the force and effect of law acted on by the Senate and reported to the House. Bills shall be printed in the order in which they are introduced and shall be distributed to members immediately upon receipt from the printer.

Rule 57. Readings of Bills. If a bill be reported with the expression of opinion that it should not pass a vote may then be taken on whether it shall be read at length and be placed on the Calendar, if a majority of the members elected to the House shall concur therein. When reported favorably by the committee, the bill shall then be given its first reading at length and shall be placed by the Commission staff upon the Calendar to be kept by the staff, and shall then be entitled to its second reading the next succeeding legislative day.

Every bill shall be read at length on three different legislative days; but the second and third readings thereof at length may be dispensed with by a majority of all the members elected to the House and the bill read by its title.

Rule 58. Calendar; Consent Calendar. (1) In order to reduce the time required for final passage of bills posted in the Orders of the Day, a consent procedure for the consideration of uncontested bills shall be established and designated as follows:

(b) The Commission staff shall also keep a Regular Orders and a Consent Orders showing bills posted for final passage by the Rules Committee.

(2) Bills reported by a Standing Committee with a regular "should pass" or "should pass with committee amendment/substitute attached" recommendation shall be shown in the Regular Calendar on the day on which they are entitled to a second reading.

(3) A Standing Committee may at the time of favorably reporting any House or Senate Bill, recommend that it be placed in the Consent Calendar provided:

(a) The primary sponsor has so requested when it is a House Bill, and

(b) The bill receives a "should pass" or "should pass with committee amendment/substitute attached" recommendation from such committee by a unanimous vote of the members present.

Any House or Senate Bill thus reported shall be first placed in the Consent Calendar on the day on which it is entitled to a second reading and shall continue to be shown in said Calendar until taken therefrom by the Rules Committee and posted in the Consent Orders. Bills receiving a second reading should be so designated to distinguish them from bills which have already received their second reading.

(4) A certificate shall be attached to each bill recommended for the Consent Calendar showing the request of the sponsor of any House Bill, and the unanimous recommendation of the members present signed by the Chairman.

(5) After a sufficient number of bills have accumulated in the Consent Calendar, the Rules Committee may post any or all of said bills to the Consent Orders for a day certain. On that day certain the Consent Orders shall be called before the Regular Orders.

(6) Upon the call of the Consent Orders each bill in said Orders shall be given a third reading by title only. The Speaker shall then allow a reasonable time for questions from the floor and any explanation necessary by the sponsor or committee chairman. Consent Order bills may not be amended from the floor.

(7) The Commission staff shall attach a roll call to each bill in the Consent Calendar and any member may at any time prior to passage of the Consent Orders record with the Commission staff his "nay" or "pass" vote on any bill within the Consent Calendar or Consent Orders.

(8) Upon the call for the question on the Consent Orders, the Speaker shall instruct the Commission staff to announce the "nay" and "pass" votes previously filed on each bill in the Consent Orders. All other members present in the chamber on the day and at the time the Consent Orders are called shall be considered as having voted "aye" and the roll call attached to each bill shall so reflect as the final vote.

(9) Upon the written petition of any five members objecting to the placement or retention of any bill in the Consent Calendar or Consent Orders, such bill shall cease to be so considered and shall be placed in the Regular Calendar or Regular Orders as provided in these rules.

Rule 59. Orders of the Day. When a bill has had its second reading it shall be placed in the Orders of the Day, or be recommitted, and when next reached in the House it shall be ready for recommitment, or to be read a third time and placed upon its passage, and the Speaker shall so announce to the House.

A bill may be recommitted or amended in accordance with these rules at any time before its passage. Bills shall be placed in the Orders of the Day in the order in which they have been given their second reading, and shall be taken therefrom in accordance with Rule 41. When a House bill is in the Orders of the Day, it shall be in order on motion of the author to substitute for it an identical Senate bill which is in the Calendar of the House.

No bill shall be taken from the Orders of the Day unless it shall have been printed and previously distributed to members.

Rule 60. Final Passage. When a House bill has been amended in the Senate and the House has concurred in the amendment, the bill as amended shall immediately be placed upon its passage.

Rule 61. Amendments to Bills. All amendments offered shall be on sheets with a proper heading printed in black, furnished by the Commission staff, and shall bear the signature of the members offering the same. All amendments shall give the proper page and line of the printed bill. Three copies of each amendment shall be introduced. No amendment shall be in order that is not germane to the matter under consideration and unless it shall have been printed and previously distributed by the Clerk to members at least one legislative day prior to consideration of the bill or resolution and unless it complies with Rule 52 relative to fiscal analysis; and the Speaker, when the question is raised, shall rule as to the admissibility of the proposed amendment, subject to appeal to the House.

Any amendment to a House bill under consideration containing the substantial text of the language of another bill shall require for its consideration the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the House. The commission staff shall cause such amendments to be identified when the bill proposed to be amended thereby is posted on the Orders of the Day. When a question is raised as to the identity of the proposed amendment containing the substantial text of another bill the Speaker shall rule thereon, subject to appeal to the House.

Rule 62. Engrossment of Bills. Every House bill and joint resolution, together with the amendments thereto, which has been passed by the House and not subject to further amendment or motion, shall be engrossed by the Commission staff. The Clerk shall endorse thereon the day of passage or adoption. The bill shall be delivered to the Senate in open session by the Clerk or someone designated by him, and Senate concurrence asked therein. A like procedure shall be observed toward Senate bills.

When engrossing a bill, the Commission staff may incorporate amendments by means of typing or by generating a replacement original of the bill through computerized process.

Rule 63. Enrollment of Bills. All House bills and resolutions which have passed both the Senate and the House shall be delivered by the Commission staff to the Enrolling Clerk, taking a receipt therefor, in the order in which passed. The Commission staff shall keep the number and title of all bills and joint and concurrent resolutions carrying the force and effect of law, passed by the House of Representatives and the Senate in a suitable record book attesting the fact and date of passage.

In the event a bill which originates in the House is amended by the Senate and the House concurs in the amendments proposed and adopted by the Senate, the Commission staff shall engross said amendments in the original copy of the bill by typing or may generate a replacement original copy of the House bill through computerized process, before delivering the bill to the Enrolling Clerk of the House.

In cases of extreme emergency and during the last three days prior to sine die adjournment, where no correct printed copy can be produced, the Enrolling Clerk may enroll such bill or resolution by typing the same.

The original bill or resolution or replacement therefor, if applicable, and an enrolled copy shall be delivered to the Committee on Enrollment. The Enrolling Clerk shall certify that each are in the exact form as finally passed prior to such delivery. The Committee on Enrollment and the Enrolling Clerk shall jointly compare the original bill with the enrolled copy, and if the enrollment is ascertained to be correctly done, the Committee shall report the same to the House. If any bill or resolution is found not correctly enrolled, it shall be returned to the Enrolling Clerk to be properly enrolled and delivered to the Committee on Enrollment as is first provided herein.

Rule 64. Signing of Bills. The Enrolling Clerk of the House shall deliver the original and enrolled copies of House bills and resolutions signed by the Speaker to the Chairman of the Enrollment Committee of the Senate for presentation to the President of the Senate for his signature. When signed by the President of the Senate, the enrolled bill or resolution and the original copy thereof shall be returned by the Enrolling Clerk to the Clerk of the House who shall present the enrolled bill or resolution to the Governor for his approval and take his receipt for same.

Rule 65. Resolutions. Resolutions having the force and effect of law shall be treated and considered as bills in all respects under these rules. However, simple resolutions expressing the will of the House and all resolutions recommending a study by an interim committee may be considered for adoption after receiving a recommendation from a standing committee and being posted for passage by the Rules Committee. All resolutions recommending a study by an interim committee shall include an approximate cost of the proposed study. All resolutions recommending or requiring a study, or which recommend or create a task force or special committee of the Legislative Research Commission shall be concurrent or joint resolutions.

Rule 66. Legislative Citations. For the purpose of extending the commendations, condolences or congratulations of the General Assembly to a particular person, or to recognize a particular event or occasion, there may be issued a "Legislative Citation." Citations may not be used for procedural matters, matters of a controversial or partisan political nature, nor in place of resolutions memorializing the U.S. Congress, but only when appropriate to express the feeling of the House or of the General Assembly with reference to a person or event.

Each such citation shall be prepared in single copy on an artistically designed form, suitable for framing, shall bear the signature of the sponsor and the name of the person or event cited, and upon adoption shall be spread at length upon the Journal. Citations shall be considered in the order of business "Motions, Petitions and Communications," and without objection shall be adopted en bloc after reading individually by title. Citations shall be offered for consideration through presentation to the Clerk.

A resolution shall not be accepted for introduction if offered in lieu of a legislative citation.

Rule 67. Roll Call. Any member, with a second, may demand a roll call on any matter pending before the House. The names of members shall be arranged alphabetically when taking a yea and nay vote.

Any time these rules require a roll-call vote, or a yea and a nay vote of the members, such vote may be taken by either a voice roll call or the electrical voting system, as ordered by the Speaker.

The Speaker, before each roll-call vote is taken, shall instruct the Clerk to sound the warning chimes installed in that part of the Capitol assigned to the use of the House.

During a roll call any one member, with a second, may request and be afforded a delay of two minutes prior to the closing of the roll. Only one such motion shall be observed during any one roll call.

Rule 68. Electrical Voting System. When the House is ready to vote upon any question requiring a roll call, and the vote is to be taken by the electrical roll call system, the Speaker shall announce:

"The question is on the passage of (designating the matter to be voted upon). All in favor of such question shall vote 'yea,' and all opposed shall vote 'nay.' The House roll is now open for voting."

The Speaker shall recognize any member who rises for the purpose of explaining his vote. No member shall be allowed to speak more than three minutes to explain his vote, and shall not speak at all if the question is not a debatable question.

When sufficient time has been allowed the members to vote and to explain their vote, the Speaker shall announce: "Have all voted?" "Does anyone desire to change his vote?" And after sufficient pause shall lock the roll call system and instruct the Clerk to record the vote. It shall be the responsibility of each member to determine the accuracy of his individual vote as registered opposite his name on the electrical roll call board and advise the Speaker of any desired change before the roll call system is locked.

The Clerk shall immediately start the recording equipment, and when completely recorded, shall present the result to the Speaker who shall announce same to the House. The Clerk shall enter upon the Journal the result in the manner provided by the rules of the House.

At the same time the vote is recorded by the electric recording equipment an original and five duplicate roll call sheets shall be made showing the vote, two of which duplicates shall be for use of the press, and one copy shall be furnished to the Legislative Research Commission.

Rule 69. Voting for Others Prohibited. No member shall vote for another member, nor shall any person not a member cast a vote for a member. In addition to such penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who shall vote or attempt to vote for another member may be punished in such manner as the House may determine. If a person not a member shall vote or attempt to vote for any member he shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session and may be further punished in such manner as the House may deem proper, in addition to such punishment as may be prescribed by law.

Rule 70. Pairing. All pairs announced in the House shall be entered on the Journal.

Rule 71. Adjournment Extended During Roll Call. When the roll is being called in taking a yea and nay vote, and the hour of an adjournment arrives, the same shall stand extended until after said yea and nay vote has been completed and the result announced.

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR

Rule 72. Persons Entitled to the Floor. No person shall be permitted upon the floor of the House when in session and two hours before and after the House is in session except the present members of the General Assembly and all officers and employees of the General Assembly. Bona fide newspaper correspondents designated in writing by the daily newspapers or press service they represent, shall be admitted to the floor when recommended by the Committee on Committees and shall be governed by the rules of the House and assigned by the Committee on Committees to a press section specifically set aside for them.

A special section of the gallery shall be reserved for the families and guests of members, who shall be admitted upon presentation of an identification card. Other persons shall be admitted to that part of the galleries not reserved for members' families. Members may submit the names of guests to the Clerk, who shall read the names to the House. Members shall not introduce guests from the floor.

Rule 73. Restriction of lobbying and access to the House Chambers and office areas. No person shall engage in lobbying for or against any measure while the House is in session, or in recess, in any of the corridors or passages or in any of the rooms in that part of the Capitol assigned to the use of the House, and no registered lobbyist shall enter that part of the Capitol while the House is in session. This rule shall not be construed to prohibit the use of the corridors or passages in going to and from the House galleries by any person.

Only authorized persons shall be allowed access to the office areas assigned for use of the members and staff of the House. For the purposes of this paragraph, "authorized person" means a member of the General Assembly, an employee of the General Assembly or Legislative Research Commission, or a person having obtained specific access authorization from such member or employee. As used in KRS 424.110 to 424.370:

(1) "Publication area" means the city, county, district, or other local area for which an advertisement is required by law to be made. An advertisement shall be deemed to be for a particular city, county, district, or other local area if it concerns an official activity of the [~~such~~] city, county, district, or other area or of any governing body, board, commission, officer, agency, or court thereof, or if the subject of the [~~matter of which~~] advertisement [~~is made~~] concerns particularly the people of the [~~such~~] city, county, district, or other area;

(2) "Advertisement" means any matter required by law to be published.

(3) "Zoned edition" means a newspaper edition published at least once a week, distributed in a specific geographic region of the newspaper's circulation area, and containing reporting and advertising of interest to subscribers in that geographic region.

Section 2. KRS 424.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, if [~~whenever~~] an advertisement for a publication area is required by law to be published in a newspaper, the publication shall [~~must~~] be made in a newspaper that meets the following requirements:

(a) It shall [~~must~~] be published in the publication area. A newspaper shall be deemed to be published in the area if it maintains its principal office in the area for the purpose of gathering news and soliciting advertisements and other general business of newspaper publications, and has a second-class mailing permit issued for that office. A newspaper published outside of Kentucky shall not be eligible to carry advertisements for any county or publication area within the county, other than for the city in which its main office is located, if there is a newspaper published in the county that has a substantial general circulation throughout the county and that otherwise meets the requirements of this section; and

(b) It shall [~~must~~] be of regular issue and have a bona fide circulation in the publication area. A newspaper shall be deemed to be of regular issue if it is published regularly, as frequently as once a week, for at least fifty (50) weeks during the calendar year as prescribed by its mailing permit, and has been so published in the area for the immediately preceding two-year period. A newspaper meeting all the criteria to be of regular issue, except publication in the area for the immediately preceding two-year period, shall be deemed to be of regular issue if it is the only paper in the publication area and has a paid circulation equal to at least ten percent (10%) of the population of the publication area. A newspaper shall be deemed to be of bona fide circulation in the publication area if it is circulated generally in the area, and maintains a definite price or consideration not less than fifty percent (50%) of its published price, and is paid for by not less than fifty percent (50%) of those to whom distribution is made; and

(c) It shall [~~must~~] bear a title or name, consist of not less than four (4) pages without a cover, and be of a type to which the general public resorts for passing events of a political, religious, commercial, and social nature, and for current happenings, announcements, miscellaneous reading matter, advertisements, and other notices. The news content shall [~~must~~] be at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the total column space in more than one-half (1/2) of its issues during any twelve-month period.

(d) If, in a publication area there is more than one (1) newspaper which meets the above requirements, the newspaper having the largest bona fide paid circulation as shown by the average number of paid copies of each issue as shown in its published statement of ownership as filed on October 1 for the publication area shall be the newspaper where advertisements required by law to be published shall be carried.

(e) For the purposes of KRS Chapter 424, publishing shall be considered as the total recurring processes of producing the newspaper, embracing all of the included contents of reading matter, illustrations, and advertising enumerated in paragraphs (a) through (d) of this subsection. A newspaper shall not be excluded from qualifying for the purposes of legal publications as provided in this chapter if its printing or reproduction processes take place outside the publication area.

(2) (a) If, in the case of a publication area smaller than the county in which it is located, there is no newspaper published in the area, the publication shall be made in a newspaper published in the county that is qualified under this section to publish advertisements for the county. If the qualified newspaper publishes a zoned edition which is distributed to regular subscribers within the publication area, any advertisement required by law to be published in the publication area may be published in the zoned edition distributed in that area.

(b) If, in any county there is no newspaper meeting the requirements of this section for publishing advertisements for that [~~such~~] county, any advertisements required to be published for the [~~such~~] county or for any publication area within the county shall be published in a newspaper of the largest bona fide circulation in that county[~~,~~] published in and qualified to publish advertisements for an adjoining county in Kentucky. This subsection is intended to supersede any statute that provides or contemplates that newspaper publication may be dispensed with if there is no newspaper printed or published or of general circulation in the particular publication area.

(3) If a publication area consists of a district, other than a city, which extends into more than one (1) county, the part of the district in each county shall be considered to be a separate publication area for the purposes of this section, and an advertisement for each [~~such~~] separate publication area shall be published in a newspaper qualified under this section to publish advertisements for the [~~such~~] area.

The Chief Doorkeeper announced the arrival of the Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Governor Brereton C. Jones addressed the Joint Session of the General Assembly as follows:

I am honored and proud to be with you on this historic evening to review the State of our Commonwealth and to share with you our blueprint for action in the coming years. As Governor, it is my constitutional duty to appear before you from time to time to discuss our problems and to propose solutions.

But this is much more than a duty to me. It is an occasion that marks the beginning of a relationship that I believe will set a new standard for mutual respect and cooperation between the executive and legislative branches. And I think it is only fitting that this new relationship be forged in the year when we are celebrating the 200th anniversary of our statehood. What better tribute could we pay to those courageous men and women who gave us our beginning than to take this important step together.

Although I have been Governor for only a short time, I have given considerable thought to the challenges we face. Tonight, I would like to share with you some of our proposals that I believe will help us meet these challenges together.

Everyone in this chamber realizes that we are in a recession. Everyone of us has friends, family members, or constituents who are suffering from the tightening bands of economic uncertainty. This national recession is taking a very human toll in the day-to-day struggle it is imposing on our people. It is also taking its toll on our state finances.

More than 40 states have cut their budgets in the last year. Many of them have slashed spending for vital programs such as health and human services, education reform, and higher education.

Kentucky is not immune to those realities. Never before in our modern history have we faced a financial challenge of the magnitude of the one now before use. We have already taken steps to start reducing the size of government. But we will have to make some very tough choices in the days ahead — choices that in better times we would never consider.

We are making those decisions now and in two weeks time I will come before you again with the result of that process — a balanced budget that reflects my commitment to working our way through these problems.

The key to long-term success for any venture is quality people and state government is no exception. I am proud to report to the taxpayers of Kentucky that your state government has some of the hardest working, most qualified people I have ever seen.

These employees deserve our thanks and our strong support. I will work with our cabinet secretaries to develop a bonus system that will set rewards for those who reach certain standards. We must also recognize that like most large enterprises, there are some employees who are not willing to put in a good day's work for a good day's pay and we will change these attitudes or remove these people from the payroll. This is the only way that we can fairly deal with the budget crisis that confronts us.

Faced with our painful fiscal circumstances, it would be easy for us to take refuge in the numbers and do nothing. It would be easy for us to be mere caretakers. But I didn't run for Governor to do the popular thing or the expedient thing. I ran for Governor to do the right thing, to make the tough decisions.

We might be broke, but we are not broken.

We might have a revenue shortfall, but there is no shortfall of leadership ability in this chamber tonight. We might have a budget deficit, but there is no deficit of courage or spirit here.

We will solve our problems, but not with the same old solutions. Ours will be a different style and there will be some who will not understand at first.

But I make a reasonable request. If your intent is fairness and you want to help solve problems, then join us and judge us on the results. If you have other motives, then do not be offended if we drive on without you. We have so much to do and so little time in which to do it.

I cannot and I will not allow a temporary budget problem to deter us from achieving our goals or making education reform a reality, of giving every child across this Commonwealth a fair start in life, of guaranteeing adequate and affordable health care to every Kentuckian, of establishing a foundation for job creation in every community, of improving the quality of our land, air and water, and of returning government — honest, ethical government — to the people.

It is time to act and we are prepared to act to work toward our goals. I will soon submit for your consideration proposals that will focus on preserving and creating jobs across our Commonwealth. Our priority will be support for our existing jobs. But we will also seek new business investments for our state.

We will recommend enactment of the Kentucky Jobs Development Act to create jobs in technology, communications, and service industries, and to attract corporate headquarters and regional offices.

We will locate economic development offices in East Kentucky and West Kentucky where experts will be charged with developing a plan to preserve and create jobs at the county level. They will also help our county governments make the most of their assets and enhance their development efforts.

I believe we must give even greater attention to an industry that has long been a mainstay of our economy — the coal industry. We will have two experts working full-time in our Economic Development Cabinet to market Kentucky coal throughout the United States and the world.

Officially our statewide unemployment rate is 7.1 percent, but we need to understand that in reality our jobless rate is greater than that. In Eastern Kentucky alone, a recent U.K. study determined that actual unemployment was approximately 30 percent, with unemployment in some counties exceeding 50 percent.

It is imperative that we act now to alleviate this situation. We must realize that when we help one part of our Commonwealth we help all of our Commonwealth.

To that end, I am committed to returning 50 percent of the coal severance tax revenues to coal counties. Our budget for the second year of the next biennium will reflect that commitment by starting the process of phasing in the increased return with an objective of reaching the full 50 percent by the end of my term. I believe this additional revenue must be dedicated to helping our coal counties prepare for a future economy when the coal is gone.

As part of our economic development initiatives, I will also propose a restructuring of our economic Development Cabinet to establish a Governing Board that will for the first time set statewide goals and keep us on track to achieve them.

This board will assure the continuity of our economic development efforts and take the politics out.

I also intend to propose in my budget package an ambitious capital construction program of up to $100 million to revitalize our state parks and re-establish Kentucky as the home of the nation's finest park system.

And I want to make it clear that I intend for this money to be spent on Kentucky companies which employ Kentucky workers who will be paid the prevailing wage.

I will continue the efforts I began as Lt. Governor to improve the marketing of Kentucky agricultural products. Agriculture is still our number one competitive advantage in trade.

I intend to work closely with Agriculture Commissioner Ed Logsdon and our agricultural experts at the University of Kentucky on projects to expand and diversify our farm economy and to enhance our marketing efforts of Kentucky agricultural products worldwide.

We cannot, however, retain our competitive advantage in agriculture without a major commitment and a long-term investment in research. During my term, we will develop with U.K. a major new animal research center at Pin Oak farm.

There is another area of agriculture that is of special interest to me — the horse industry.

When I became Lt. Governor four years ago, I could find no documentation on just what the horse industry means to our state.

Since then, the University of Kentucky has conducted an economic impact study that concluded that the equine industry in Kentucky accounts for 79,820 jobs in our state.

I know that as members of this General Assembly you realize what 79,820 jobs mean to Kentucky. Can you imagine what we would do to encourage 79,000 jobs to come to our state? I believe we should commit ourselves to preserving and protecting this industry with the same zeal we would employ to attract such a prospect.

I will offer for your consideration during this session several proposals that will strengthen our thoroughbred industry.

I fully recognize that some may say I am interested in this area because of my involvement in the horse industry. To them I would say: any Governor who would not do everything in his power to save the jobs of 79,000 Kentuckians ought to be impeached.

I am going to do everything I can to preserve and protect those jobs while strengthening a Kentucky industry that is much more than a business. It is every much a part of our heritage and culture. And it will be part of our legacy.

We will — and should — be measured by that legacy. Speaking of legacies, there is nothing that will tell future generations more about us than the decisions we make in education.

Kentucky's education reform is an epic saga with thousands of heroes. There are none greater, however, than those of you in this chamber who two years ago had the collective courage to craft the boldest reform effort in this country and to find the revenue to fund its beginning stages.

We cannot allow that courage to leave us unattended now as we move ahead with the next stage of education reform. We cannot and we will not allow tight budgetary times to deter us from fulfilling the covenant that we have with the children of Kentucky. We must strive to maintain in the next fiscal year the essential elements of reform, even if it is at the expense of other worthy programs in government.

Then in the following year, we must act with vigor to advance education reform the next step.

Working together we can make education reform a reality. We can effect a social resolution in this state that will guarantee that a child's future is no longer determined by an accident of geography or economic circumstance.

The children of farmers and factory workers will have the very same opportunities as the children of the rich and privileged. All children will have open before them, as Ed Prichard said, "The path to a larger life."

To make education reform complete, we must also focus our attention on higher education. We must adopt the same principles in higher education that made our primary and secondary education reform effort the model for the nation.

I want to work with you and with the higher education community to devise specific goals for our colleges in instruction, research, and public service.

We need to agree on a system of assessing the progress of each institution toward those goals. And those colleges that succeed should ultimately be rewarded through our funding system.

Let there be no misunderstanding; I am not proposing a simplistic testing mechanism, but a thorough assessment of each part of a university's mission to determine progress toward their goals.

To be successful, our higher education system must be free of the taint of petty politics. I intend to propose in this session the creation of a nominating commission to select qualified nominees to be recommended to the Governor for appointment to university boards and the Council on Higher Education.

This process will remove political consideration from these very important decisions — and I believe it is a change that will have a very positive, lasting effect on higher education in Kentucky. Improvements do not always require more money. Now is the time to demand this action.

Because I believe it is so important, I am unwilling to wait for this change or to phase it in gradually. That is why as part of my package I will be asking you for the authority to reorganize immediately every board of trustees and board of regents in our state. Then every seat on every board will be subject to the non-political nominating process I have outlined.

With this reorganization in place, we will have eliminated almost immediately the influence of politics on our university boards. Then we can direct our attention to effecting meaningful change for the improvement of higher education.

All the spending we can muster on education reform, and all of our efforts in higher education, will ultimately be for naught unless all of our children have a fair start on life.

Fully one-fourth of our children are born into and live in poverty. Every day of their lives they know first-hand the pain and despair of poverty. Many of the parents of these children have known nothing but that same debilitating poverty throughout their own lives. For these children to have a fair start, we must not only help them but provide encouragement and assistance to their parents.

I am committed to our early childhood education program adopted as part of our historic reform package. I will also put my best efforts to work to see to it that sufficient funds are made available for our new family resource centers.

I am also committed to the parents of these children. We must give them a stake in society to enable them to pass along to their children the proper attitudes and values. That is why I will make every effort to avoid, even in next year's difficult budget, any cuts in our state and federal welfare reform programs. These programs are providing educational training and job opportunities and are concrete examples of my belief that government should help people to help themselves.

We must also recognize our responsibility to senior citizens. The newly formed association of older Kentuckians — AOK — will have the full support of this administration. And we will work during our four years to put programs in place that will help all Kentuckians lead vital, independent lives as they grow older.

Too many Kentuckians — especially women and children — awaken every day to lives that are darkened by the threat of violence in their own homes. We must act immediately on their behalf and our administration will lead the effort to strengthen our laws against domestic violence.

There is no area more clearly in need of government action than health care. We must begin now to reach a consensus for solving the long-term problems of providing affordable, quality care for all our citizens. While we must take care of immediate, acute care needs, our focus should be on improving the general health of our citizens over the long run. The humane approach is a coordinated primary preventive health care system linked with comprehensive school health education.

I anticipate a coordinated system that uses the best of private medicine and public health and integrates private competitive insurance with governmental support. It is imperative that we gain control of health care costs.

There are some things we can do today to more aggressively pursue our goals of improved care for our citizens. A recent report of the Cabinet for Human Resources — healthy Kentuckians 2000 — contains numerous recommendations to improve our health status.

I am directing the secretary for Human Resources to place major emphasis on the following goals:

To reduce the infant mortality rate;

To reduce the fetal death rate;

To reduce the maternal mortality rate;

To reduce low birth weight;

To reduce deaths from uterine and cervical cancer;

To promote the immunization of every child.

We will accomplish these goals by putting our major focus on preventive health care.

You know by now that I believe in consensus building to solve problems. I believe that this is the kind of process we need to find a way to make health care available and affordable to all our citizens. Looking for villains and pointing fingers at each other will not solve the problem. Bringing everyone to the table — consumers, providers, business, labor, government — talking it out and building consensus is the way to solve any problem.

Our administration will provide leadership to the consensus building process. We have a unique opportunity in Kentucky to show the nation what can be done to reform our health care system. Kentucky's population is small enough to allow us to plan efficiently and effectively. Our geographic area is small enough to ensure that people in one part of the state can communicate with people in the other parts.

I will appoint a special task force for comprehensive health care reform. This task force will be charged with developing reform recommendations this year because this issue requires action as soon as possible. I will then ask you to consider those recommendations in a special legislative session.

In the area of environmental protection, our mandate from the people is clear and compelling. We will enforce the law without fear and without favor. To all who will commit themselves to seeking solutions to our common problems. We extend an open invitation to join us in the search for new ideas that work.

With this invitation, we expect all parties to bring to the table only an open mind and a willingness to become part of the solution. To skeptics who argue that this new approach will not work, we submit a challenge: Judge us by our actions.

The recent resolution of the Lake Cumberland controversy teaches us that new solutions to environmental problems are not only possible, they are attainable.

We rejoice in the hope that this achievement inspires. And we pledge to be patient in the difficulties that will come as we seek to extend the boundaries of possibility into other areas of environmental conflict. We have a leadership in the Cabinet for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection that has the capacity and the commitment to set the standards for future generations.

This epic of conservation and stewardship is not an option or a luxury, it is a necessity. Our disposable society must change if our children and grandchildren are to have access to the clean air, land, and water necessary for life.

Disposable values like disposable bottles merely shift the costs of the cleanup effort to the next generation. And we will come before you in this session with our proposals — including a bottle bill — that will reflect our recognition that the time to act is now.

I have saved for last the discussion of an issue that is very important to me — governmental reform. Thirty-two years ago in his inaugural address, Gov. Bert Combs identified as one of his chief goals the "elevation of the moral and political tone of government".

His goal must be our goal as well. We must give back government to the people. We must re-establish our government as being dedicated to the high ideals of public service rather than the low down deals of petty politics.

We must take immediate action on campaign finance and election reform. I will propose this session a tough campaign finance bill that will lower the maximum campaign contribution to $100, and attempt to lower the total amount of money that is spent by providing for a system of public financing for gubernatorial and Lt. Governor elections. And we will propose that a runoff primary be instituted for those two offices.

I favor gubernatorial succession and will enthusiastically support a constitutional amendment on succession that will not apply to me as the sitting Governor. I will also support a constitutional amendment that would reduce the number of elected statewide offices to four: the Governor, Lt. Governor, Auditor of Public Accounts, and Attorney General. As I have said in the past, I favor granting to the Lt. Governor the duties of the current offices of Treasurer and Secretary of State.

I have already issued by executive order a code of ethics for executive branch officials. I will present a bill in this session to establish that code as a permanent part of state law.

And I believe we must reduce the number of elections we have in Kentucky — moving all of our elections to even numbered years.

I feel very strongly about each and every one of these reform measures. I believe they are necessary to restore the public's confidence in government and its elected and appointed officials.

Restoring the public's confidence must be our objective, and to do that we must leave for our successors a government that is more efficient and effective than the one we inherited.

Our administration will institute a comprehensive review of the structure, organization and function of government. I will ask Auditor Ben Chandler to assist in this effort to streamline government and make it responsive to the needs of Kentuckians.

As we enter our third century, we must demand more or ourselves and of each other. We must willingly embrace new ideas and make these marble halls echo with a new spirit. But I caution you, do not confuse compassion for another human being with approval of that person's actions. Do not confuse a desire to be fair and build a consensus with a lack of leadership.

The leadership from the Governors Office will be real — it will be fair — and it will be successful.

Together, we can create a progressive government, a caring society and a robust economy that will be the envy of the nation.

Thank you.

The commissioners or governing body shall not eliminate fire hydrants from new or extended water lines unless they determine that hydrants are not feasible. Their analysis shall include consideration of the incremental costs of adequately sized pipe and associated pumps and towers, and the benefits of real estate development, water sales, the availability of fire protection insurance, and the reduced fire insurance premiums which may result from the installation of hydrants at specified intervals.

(2) If a private real estate subdivision developer has not included adequately sized pipe and fire hydrants in his development plan, the commissioners of a water district or the governing body of a water association which has the capacity to supply adequate water for fire hydrants shall require, at the time the developer applies for permission to hook into the district's water lines, an analysis by the developer of the incremental cost of hydrants and piping adequately sized for hydrants, the effect of hydrants on the cost and availability of fire protection insurance, and conclusions as to why the installation of hydrants is not feasible.

Section 1. KRS 164.020 is amended to read as follows:

The Council on Higher Education in Kentucky shall:

(1) Engage in analyses and research to determine the overall needs of higher education in the Commonwealth.

(2) Develop and transmit to the Governor comprehensive plans for public higher education which meet the needs of the Commonwealth. The plans so developed shall conform to the respective functions and duties of the state universities, the community colleges, and the University of Kentucky, as provided by statute. (3) Determine tuition and approve the minimum qualifications for admission to the public institutions of higher education. In determining the tuition for non-Kentucky residents, the council shall consider the fees required of Kentucky students by institutions in adjoining states, the resident fees charged by other states, the total actual per student cost of training in the institutions for which the fees are being determined, and the ratios of Kentucky students to non-Kentucky students comprising the enrollments of the respective institutions, and [~~such~~] other factors [~~as~~] the council may in its sole discretion deem pertinent.

(4) Consider the requirements and review the budget requests, which shall be prepared in the manner and submitted by the institutions to the council by dates prescribed by the council, of the institutions of public higher education as to their appropriate level of support considering the functions of the institutions and their respective needs. The formulas shall provide for adequate and equitable allocation of funds among the several universities considering their respective needs and statutory, institutional, and geographic missions. In the development, revision, and

The individual institutions' budget requests, including tuition and registration fee schedules for all categories of students, along with council recommendations shall be submitted to the Governor through the Finance and Administration Cabinet not later than November 15 of each odd-numbered year. The council shall submit a separate budgetary recommendation for the University of Kentucky community college system.

(10) Elect a chairman annually from the voting membership and appoint an executive director and [~~such~~] staff [~~as may be~~] needed and fix their compensation without limitation of the provisions of KRS Chapter 18A and KRS 64.640, subject to the approval of the commissioner of personnel and the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet.

(11) Constitute the representative agency of the Commonwealth in all matters of higher education of a general and statewide nature which are not otherwise delegated to one (1) or more institutions of higher learning. The [~~Such~~] responsibility may be exercised through appropriate contractual relationships with individuals or agencies located within or without the Commonwealth. The authority includes, but is not limited to, contractual arrangements for programs of research, specialized training, and cultural enrichment.

(1) As used in Sections 1 to 5 of this Act, "automated calling equipment" means any device or combination of devices which is used to select or dial telephone numbers and to deliver recorded messages to the numbers so selected or dialed.

(2) Unless the conditions set out in paragraphs (a) to (f) of this subsection are met, no person shall use automated calling equipment, or cause it to be used, for conducting polls, for soliciting information, or for advertising goods, services, or property:

(a) The person receiving the call consents to it, as specified in Section 2 of this Act;

(b) The recorded message clearly states the name and telephone number of the person or organization initiating the call within the first twenty-five (25) seconds of the message and at the conclusion of the message. That telephone number given in the recorded message shall, during normal office hours, be answered promptly and personally by an agent of the person or organization on whose behalf the automatic calls are made, who is able to provide information concerning the automatic calls;

(c) The automated calling equipment terminates its connection with any telephone call within ten (10) seconds after the person called either fails to consent to hear a recorded message or hangs up the telephone;

(d) The use does not involve either the random or sequential dialing of telephone numbers, does not call telephone numbers which are omitted from the telephone directory at the customer's request, and does not call hospitals, nursing homes, fire protection agencies, or law enforcement agencies;

(e) Calls using the automated calling equipment are made only between 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m.; and

(f) The automated calling equipment operates only when it is attended and is designed or installed so that it does not operate without an attendant, even in the event of power failures.

(a) A live operator introduces the call and states an intent to play a recorded message; or

(b) By using the telephone keypad to provide a consent response.

Consent obtained pursuant to this subsection applies only to the particular call and does not constitute prior consent to receive further calls through automated calling equipment.

(2) A person may consent to receive telephone calls through automated calling equipment by giving written consent to the person using automated calling equipment or causing it to be used.

(a) Any form used to obtain written consent shall state clearly and conspicuously its purpose and effect and shall clearly and conspicuously give notice of how the consent can be withdrawn.

(2) No person shall use automated calling equipment, or cause it to be used, to solicit persons to call a telephone fee line under his control.

(3) No telephone company shall knowingly provide a telephone fee line to a person who solicits calls to that line through the use of automated calling equipment. GOVERNOR EDWIN MORROW SPEECH

Presented by Vic Hellard, Jr.

House Chamber

January 15, 1992

Governor Patton, Mr. Speaker Blandford, Senator Rose, Preacher Karem, Dr. Thomas Clark, distinguished members of the Kentucky General Assembly, thank you for allowing me the opportunity to address this august assemblage today.

In 1915, I ran against a fellow named Owsley Stanley for Governor. And coming up here yesterday I happened to run into Owsley Stanley on the train and we had some wonderful reminiscings about that time. We remain close personal friends in spite of that campaign and we had a lot of good debates.

In 1915 Owsley beat me by 471 votes by the official count. Now that was a strange count indeed for in 1919, Representative Worthington, I ran again and won by 40,000 votes, which prompted some Kentuckians to speculate that I was the only Governor ever twice elected to serve his terms concurrently.

But during that 1915 debate we travelled together, Owsley and I. We would have dinner together, we would debate, we would sit by after dinner and have some good Kentucky bourbon, and more often than not we would end up sleeping together in the same bed. But remember in 1915 there just weren't a whole lot of places for people to sleep who were travelling. Now I didn't mind sleeping with Owsley Stanley, oh, no, no, not at all. Except the man snores! Terribly! Well, actually, Gentleman from Ohio, it's more like a braying, but of course, he is a Democrat.

Now reminiscing coming down here we talked about that time in Glasgow, Representative Nunn, when we met there for a debate. We'd travelled there together the night before and we had a delightful time with local officials, and we imbibed some good Kentucky bourbon and had fellowship.

The next morning we arose early and attended to our political obligations. And that afternoon we went to the Courthouse where we were to debate and there was some good Western Kentucky burgoo, and during the festivities why Stanley imbibed some more good Kentucky bourbon, and he ate a lot of good Western Kentucky burgoo and it was an awfully hot day.

We got on the platform to speak and I was told to speak first. I was speaking and to my right I heard a rather strange noise. I looked to my right and there was Owsley bent over to the side vomiting in front of all those people, and I was embarrassed. I was mortified and sorry for my friend's discomfort, but I continued to speak. He straightened himself up, went back to his seat and sat down.

I finished my remarks and I sat down. Owsley came forward in a somewhat unsteady manner wiping the sweat from his brow, drew himself up to his full measure and looked that crowd in the eye and said, "Gentlemen, for what you have just witnessed I most humbly apologize, but every time I hear Ed Morrow speak it makes me sick to my stomach!"

Well, lest my Democratic friends think I am belittling my friend Owsley Stanley, I am not, for he is a great Kentucky leader. As a matter of fact, probably the greatest act of political courage I have ever witnessed was performed by Owsley Stanley when he was Governor, and went to Murray, Kentucky, to prevent a lynching from taking place by offering himself up to the lynch mob.

That was a real act of courage but it stopped the lynching, just as my actions in 1920 stopped a lynching in Lexington. I was forced to send a troop of Kentucky militia to the Fayette County Courthouse to see that the law was observed and the judicial process allowed to proceed.

Unfortunately, a mob of some 6,000 beset those troops. A battle ensued, several Kentuckians were killed, scores more were wounded, but the majesty of the law was unheld. The national press titled that the "Second Battle of Lexington". And more than one of them has suggested that our decisive action dealing with the lawless element at that time was the turning point in America for dealing with mob violence. I hope that is so. I hope that is so.

Well, since leaving office I have kept up with your work for my love for Kentucky is as eternal as the beauty of her mountains and her streams. And I have paid particular attention to your work in education, in education reform, and I congratulate you for it.

In 1920, I stood in this very spot speaking to a joint session of the General Assembly, and at that time I told them that Kentucky education was in a crisis. More particularly that Kentucky rural education was in a crisis, that Kentucky had neglected her country children.

I also said that we had to find a way to remove from politics the state Superintendent of Public Instruction and the local superintendents of public instruction. At that time I offered a recommendation, a suggestion that a constitutional amendment be passed which would take the state Superintendent of Public Instruction out of the political arena and put him into the statute as an appointed office, where he ought to be. And I tell you in 72 years nothing has occurred to make me change that recommendation.

I also said to you that school reform at that time was important, but I pointed out that proper financing of education was important. That in the proper financing of education I said to that assemblage that generosity is economy, savings extravagance. Education is an investment. Ignorance is the meanest tax of all.

But I'm sorry, I really didn't come here today to talk to you about Owsley Stanley or about education. My lovely wife, Kate, says that I sometimes ramble and I'm afraid I was carried away by the moment. I'm really here to talk to you about Kentucky and Kentucky's gifts to this nation as we approach her birthday. And indeed there is no altar of national love or national service on which Kentucky has not proudly laid her priceless gifts of head and heart, of soul and body. There has been no march of progress in which she did not share, no field of endeavor in which she did not toil, no victory which she did not help to win, and no defeat which she did not suffer, and no star on the flag which she did not help keep in its field of blue.

To tell the story of Kentucky's gifts to the life and progress of the nation, to recount the lofty deeds, and the names of her distinguished sons and daughters is impossible in the brief time allowed today. We can only sketch the mountain peaks of her influence.

During the years of her terrible struggle for existence, even before her entrance into the Union, her hearty sons and daughters were leading the vanguard in the march of the nation's progress. Leading in that march of civilization started by Boone and his companions, where they threw themselves beyond the walls of the Appalachians and through the gaps in the Cumberlands and pushed on beyond, beyond the Missouri and across the western prairies, beyond the frowning barriers of the Rockies and down to the lapping waves of the Pacific, where now teeming cities light their lamps by the setting sun 'ere it sinks into ocean's outstretched arms.

Ah, pioneers of Kentucky. Ah, Wilderness Road. Crimsoned with blood, golden with romance and legend, your story will live as long as history finds a pen or truth a tongue. Boone, Kenton, Harrod, Whitley, Logan, your moccasined feet have left their imprint in the sands of time forever. It was the Kentucky pioneer, those knights in buckskin, who followed the vision granted quest of George Rogers Clark, and who, starting at the falls of the Ohio, pressed on through swamps and morass, pressed on through snow and ice, pressed on through difficulties that immortalized endurance, to the walls of Old Vincennes, where they took from the sky the flag of England and gave that priceless jewel, the Northwest, to live forever in the diadem of the newborn Republic.

Sons of such sires, heirs of such tradition, is it no wonder that the sons and daughters of Kentucky have in the life, the thought, and the deeds of the nation, taken such high place and rank, and that Kentucky has given noble gifts to this nation? To the cause of education Kentucky gave a first newspaper, a first library, the first university west of the Appalachians and was among the first states in the Union to imbed deeply in the foundation of her government that Rock of Ages, the American common free school.

In the realm of statesmanship, we point with pride to Beck, and Breckinridge, Letcher, Carlisle, and Clay, the Great Compromiser, who stood with loving heart and lofty brain between the North and South, and like Moses serving his people, held back for years the cruel wave of fratricidal strife.

In jurisprudence, to Nicholas, Boyle, Robinson, and Harlan the Great Dissenter, in oratory to Marshall, Menifee, and Clay of the old school, and Bradley and James of the new. In surgery to McDowell, the father of oviotomy, and to Beshear who first amputated the thigh at the hip joint. In journalism, to Penn, and Prentiss, and to the greatest Roman of them all, our own "Marse" Henry, who first and for months alone, sounded that stirring bugle call which was at last to swell into the national chorus "To Hell with the Hohenzollerns and the Hapsburgs!"

In invention we point to John Fitch and James Ramsey who first mastered the principles of the steamboat and to Barlowe, who invented the planetarium and made a model of the first locomotive.

In theology to Bascum and Waller Rice and Alexander Campbell, who in the wilderness gave to religion a new faith which now numbers thousands of followers, in art to Jouett whose cunning so truthfully delineated the human form as to almost make his canvasses almost breathe and speak. To Joel Hart the sculpturer, whose genius touched cold and hard and formless marble to make it blush with its own loveliness.

In poetry to O'Hara who wrote the immortal elegy "For All the Immortal Dead". And to music, Kentucky gave a deathless song, one which blends in its heart the mysteries of twilight and moonlight, the glories of the newfound day, and which, speaking a universal language, tugged with memory's hands at the heartstrings of every wanderer as he listens to the call of the land of his birth and the tender, holy, beautiful strains of "My Old Kentucky Home".

To luxury and dreams the Bluegrass State has given its leaves of golden burley, to summon spirits when released by the fire steals into the fortunes of the brain and binds fast its sentinels of grief and care. To the sport of kings, to thrill the hearts and tense the muscles of thousands of spectators she has given the wild, tattooed beat of the flying hooves of Kentucky Thoroughbreds as they flash like light beneath the wire.

But, if there had been in all of Kentucky, but one travail of birth, that in a miserable, typical log cabin, one crooning love songs to a babe held in the hollow of a mother's shoulder, then that mother, Nancy Hanks, and that babe, Abraham Lincoln, this birth alone would have been enough to make every foot of Kentucky's soil holy, sacred ground forever.

In every struggle of our national existence, in every hour of our country's greatest hell, from Bunker Hill to Chateau Terry, Kentucky has kept step and heartbeat with the nation. In the Revolution the longrifles of the Kentuckians helped to encircle King's Mountain with a ring of fire. In 1812 Kentuckians died at the Melancholy Raising and under gallant Richard Johnson, Kentuckians found revenge at the battle of the Thames.

At New Orleans, Kentuckians stood by the side of "Old Hickory", and with unerring aim shot the Redcoats where their belts crossed across their hearts until they broke and ran.

On the lake, Kentucky furnished to victorious Perry Morgan one-fourth of his command, and it's almost unbelievable but true that in the total casualties of this war Kentucky suffered more than one-third. In Mexico, Kentuckians sanctified with their blood the ground of Buena Vista where fell McKee, young Harry Clay, gallant Vaughn.

In the great Civil War, Kentucky furnished the Commanders-in-Chief of both sides, Lincoln and Davis, and, to the contending hope, she gave more soldiers than she had voters. Like plumed knights to lead the host to battle, she gave Morgan, and Warford, Breckenridge and Rousseau, Kelly and Hanson, Duke and Adams, and at the close, Kentucky was the first state in the Union by legislative enactment to take back to her war-scarred breast all of her children, no matter whether they wore blue, or the gray.

And in the greatest, and we pray God Almighty what may be the last struggle for freedom, Kentucky with an unmixed loyalty met every demand, filled every quota, overprescribed her share of every liberty loan. Thank God the old state gladly, proudly made the great sacrifice.

Flesh of her flesh, bone of her bone, and core of her heart's desire, she sent her sons to meet like knights of old, the great adventure. From the waters of the Cumberland, she sent Howard Kinney, to die, like an eagle above the clouds, for freedom. From the Bluegrass, lovable Rubin Hutchcraft, to fill a heroes' grave. From the proud city of Louisville, worthy followers of her old legion. And to the role of the heroic bed, she gave Humphrey's, noble-hearted Charlie Gardner, gallant Humbler and many another to find a hero's grave in the land of our beloved LaFayette.

On flames' eternal camping ground, their silent tents are spread. Where glory guards with solemn 'round the bivouac of the dead.

Today, filled with the memory of our glorious traditions, and recollections of our deathless dead; in this hour consecrated by the memory of all Kentuckians before gone let us solemnly rededicate ourselves to the service of our beloved Commonwealth. Let us solemnly determine that with the help of God Almighty, the future of Kentucky shall be worthy of her past.

Thank you.

This report shall be made to the registry on the last day of the first calendar quarter following the registration of the committee with the registry and on the last day of each succeeding calendar quarter until such time as the committee terminates. All reports to the registry shall be postmarked or received not later than five (5) days after each filing deadline.

(7)[~~(6)~~] If the final statement of a [~~an opposed~~] candidate shows an unexpended balance of contributions, continuing debts and obligations, or an expenditure deficit, the campaign treasurer shall file with the registry a supplemental statement of contributions and expenditures not more than thirty (30) days after the deadline for filing the final statement. Subsequent supplemental statements shall be filed semiannually [~~by opposed candidates and annually by unopposed candidates~~], to be in the hands of the registry or postmarked within ten (10) days after April 15 and October 15 [~~for opposed candidates and October 15 for unopposed candidates~~], until the account shows no unexpended balance, continuing debts and obligations, expenditures, or deficit. All contributions shall be subject to KRS 121.150.

(8)[~~(7)~~] All reports filed under the provisions of this chapter shall be a matter of public record open to inspection by any member of the public immediately upon receipt of the report by the registry. A duplicate copy of each report filed with the registry shall be filed by the candidate or campaign committee with the county clerk in the county in which the candidate resides at the same time. County clerks shall maintain these reports for public inspection for a period of one (1) year from the date the last report is required to be filed.

[~~(8) If a candidate is unopposed in an election after the time prescribed by law for qualifying for nomination or election to the office, he shall not be required to file any pre-election reports required by KRS 121.015 and 121.110 to 121.200. The Secretary of State and each county clerk shall notify the registry of all unopposed candidates within their filing jurisdiction within ten (10) days of the filing deadline.~~]

(9) A candidate is relieved of the duty personally to file reports and keep records of receipts and expenditures if the candidate states in writing or on forms provided by the registry that:

(a) Within five (5) business days after personally receiving any contributions [~~in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000)~~], the candidate shall surrender possession of the [~~entire contribution or~~] contributions to the treasurer of his principal campaign committee without expending any of the proceeds thereof. No contributions shall be commingled with the candidate's personal funds or accounts. Contributions received by check, money order, or other written instrument shall be endorsed directly to the campaign [~~political~~] committee and shall not be cashed or redeemed by the candidate;

(b) The candidate shall not make any unreimbursed expenditure for his campaign, except that this paragraph does not preclude a candidate from making an expenditure from personal funds to his designated principal campaign committee, which expenditure shall be reported by the committee as a contribution received; and

(c) The waiver shall continue in effect as long as the candidate complies with the conditions under which it was granted.

(11)[~~(10)~~] No candidate [~~as defined in this section,~~] nor any committee [~~as defined in this section,~~] shall use or permit the use of contributions or funds solicited or received for such person or in support of or opposition to a public issue to further the candidacy of such person for a different public office or to further a different public issue or to further the candidacy of any other person. Any funds or contributions solicited or received by or on behalf of a candidate or any committee, which has been organized in whole or in part to further any candidacy for the same person or to support or oppose the same public issue, shall be deemed to have been solicited or received for the candidacy for which he is then a candidate or for the election on the public issue if the funds or contributions are solicited or received at any time prior to the regular [~~general~~] election for which the candidate or public issue is on the ballot [~~he is a nominee~~] and for thirty days (30) thereafter. Any unexpended balance of funds not otherwise obligated for the payment of expenses incurred to further a public [~~political~~] issue or the candidacy of a person shall, in whole or in part, at the election of the candidate or committee, escheat to the State Treasury, be returned pro rata to all contributors or, in the case of a partisan candidate, be transferred to the state or county executive committee of the political party of which the candidate is a member except that a candidate, committee, or an official may retain such funds to further the same public [~~political~~] issue or to seek election to the same office.

Section 2. KRS 83A.045 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in KRS 83A.047, partisan elections of city officers shall be governed by the following provisions, regardless of the form of government or classification of the city:

(a) A candidate for party nomination to city office shall file his nomination papers with the county clerk of the county not less than one hundred nineteen (119) days before the day fixed by KRS Chapter 118 for holding a primary election. All nomination papers shall be filed no later than 4 p.m. local time when filed on the last day on which the papers are permitted to be filed.

(b) An independent candidate for nomination to city office shall not participate in a primary election, but shall file his nomination papers with the county clerk of the county not less than ninety-one (91) days before the day fixed by KRS Chapter 118 for holding a regular election. All nomination papers shall be filed no later than 4 p.m. local time when filed on the last day on which the papers are permitted to be filed.

(c) A candidate for city office who is defeated in a partisan primary election shall be ineligible as a candidate for the same office in the regular election. However, if a vacancy occurs in the party nomination for which he was an unsuccessful candidate in the primary election, his name may be placed on the voting machines for the regular election as a candidate of that party if he has been duly made the party nominee after the vacancy occurs, as provided in KRS 118.105.

(2) Except as provided in KRS 83A.047, nonpartisan elections of city officers shall be governed by KRS 83A.050, 83A.170, 83A.175, and the following provisions, regardless of the form of government or classification of the city:

(a) A candidate for city office shall file his nomination papers with the county clerk of the county not less than one hundred nineteen (119) days before the day fixed by KRS Chapter 118 for holding a primary election. All nomination papers shall be filed no later than 4 p.m. local time when filed on the last day on which the papers are permitted to be filed;

(b) Any city of the fourth to sixth class may by ordinance provide that the nomination and election of candidates for city office in a nonpartisan election shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of this subsection:

1. A city may forgo conducting a nonpartisan primary election for the nomination of candidates to city office, regardless of the number of candidates running for each office, and require all candidates to file their nomination papers with the county clerk of the county no less than ninety-one (91) days before the day fixed by KRS Chapter 118 for holding a regular election.

2. All nomination papers shall be filed no later than 4 p.m. local time when filed on the last day on which the papers are permitted to be filed.

3. If a city does not conduct a primary election pursuant to this subsection, the election of candidates to city office shall be governed by the provisions of this subsection, KRS 83A.175(2) to (6), and KRS Chapters 116 to 121.

4. [~~If a city does not conduct a primary election pursuant to this subsection, candidates for city office shall not be required to make pre-election reports to the Registry of Election Finance pursuant to KRS 121.180, but shall be required to make post-election reports within thirty (30) days after the regular election in November.~~

~~5.~~] In the absence of a primary pursuant to this subsection, the number of candidates equal to the number of city offices to be filled who receive the highest number of votes cast in the regular election for each city office shall be elected.

5.[~~6.~~] Candidates shall be subject to all other applicable election laws pursuant to this chapter and KRS Chapters 116 to 121.

6.[~~7.~~] If a vacancy occurs in a candidacy for city office in any city which has not held a primary pursuant to this subsection after the expiration of time for filing nomination papers due to the death, incapacity, or withdrawal of a candidate, or if there are fewer candidates than there are offices to be filled, the vacancy in candidacy shall be filled in the following manner:

a. If the vacancy in candidacy occurs less than ninety-one (91) days but more than thirty (30) days prior to the regular election, candidates shall file petitions of nomination to fill the vacancy with the county clerk not less than thirty (30) days prior to the regular election.

b. If the vacancy in candidacy occurs less than thirty (30) days prior to the regular election, candidates shall not file petitions of nomination to fill the vacancy with the county clerk, but shall seek election by write-in vote. If no person is elected to the office by write-in vote at the regular election, the vacancy in office shall be filled temporarily by appointment by the officer or body designated by law to fill the appointment.

(c) A candidate for city office who is defeated in a nonpartisan primary election shall be ineligible as a candidate for the same office in the regular election.

Section 3. KRS 83A.170 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In any city which has under the provisions of KRS 83A.045 or 83A.050 required nonpartisan city elections, or in any city of the second class operating under the city manager form of government pursuant to KRS 83A.150, no person shall be elected to city office except as provided in this section or as otherwise provided in this chapter relating to nonpartisan elections.

(2) No person shall be elected to city office without being nominated in the manner provided in this section at a nonpartisan primary election to be held at the time prescribed by KRS Chapters 116 to 121, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Nonpartisan primary elections shall be conducted by the same officers, chosen and acting in the same manner, with the same rights and duties as in regular elections.

(3) Each applicant for nomination shall, by at least the last date prescribed by the election law generally for filing notification and declaration forms with the county clerk or the Secretary of State as provided in KRS 83A.047, file with the county clerk a petition of nomination, which shall be in the form prescribed by the State Board of Elections signed by at least two (2) registered voters in the city. Each voter may sign individual petitions equal to the number of offices to be filled. If a voter signs petitions for more candidates than he is authorized, he shall be counted as a petitioner for the candidate whose petition is filed first.

(4) The county clerk or the Secretary of State shall examine the petition of each candidate to determine whether it is regular on its face. If there is an error, the county clerk shall notify the candidate by certified mail within twenty-four (24) hours of filing.

(5) Immediately upon expiration of the time for filing petitions, the county clerk or the Secretary of State shall have published in accordance with KRS Chapter 424 the names of the applicants as they will appear before the voters at the primary.

(6) Subsection (5) of this section shall not apply if it appears, immediately upon expiration of the time for filing petitions, that there are not more than two (2) applicants for nomination for each city office to be filled, or, when the nominations are for city legislative body members in cities electing legislative body members at large, and there are no more than twice the number of applicants for nomination for the number of offices to be filled. In that case, the applicants for nomination shall thereby be nominated and no drawing for ballot position nor primary election shall be held for that office. [~~If, in accordance with the provisions of this section or KRS 83A.045(2)(b), a primary election has not been held, candidates for nonpartisan city office shall not be required to make pre-election reports to the Registry of Election Finance pursuant to KRS 121.180, but shall be required to make post-election reports within thirty (30) days after the regular election in November.~~]

(7) The ballot position of a candidate shall not be changed after the ballot position has been designated by the county clerk.

(8) If before the ballots are printed, any candidate whose petition has been filed in the office of the county clerk or the Secretary of State dies or notifies the clerk or the Secretary of State in writing, signed and properly notarized that he will not accept the nomination, the clerk shall not cause his name to be printed on the ballot.

(9) If, after the ballots are printed, any candidate whose name appears thereon shall withdraw pursuant to KRS 118.212 or die,

(a) Neither the precinct election officers nor the county board of elections shall tabulate or record the votes cast for the candidate.

(b) The county clerk shall provide notices to the precinct election officers who shall see that a notice is conspicuously displayed at the polling place advising voters of the change, and that votes for the candidate shall not be tabulated or recorded. If the county clerk learns of the death or withdrawal at least five (5) days prior to the election and provides the notices required by this subsection and the precinct officers fail to post the notices at the polling place, the officers shall be guilty of a violation.

(10) Names of applicants for each nomination shall be placed before the voters of the city. The voters shall be instructed to vote for one (1) candidate, except that they shall be instructed to vote for the number of legislative body members to be elected in cities nominating legislative body members at large. No party designation or emblem of any kind nor any sign indicating any applicant's political belief or party affiliation shall be used.

(11) Persons qualified to vote at a regular election shall be qualified to vote at a nonpartisan primary election and the law applicable to challenges made at a regular election shall be applicable to challenges made at a nonpartisan primary election.

(12) Votes shall be counted as provided in general election laws, pursuant to KRS Chapters 116 to 121, and the result shall be published as provided in KRS Chapter 424.

(13) The two (2) applicants receiving the highest number of votes for nomination for each city office shall be nominated, or where the nominations are for city legislative body members in cities electing legislative body members at large, there shall be nominated the number of applicants receiving the highest number of votes equal to twice the number of offices to be filled.

(14) At the regular election following a nonpartisan primary election, the names of the successful nominees and candidates who have filed a petition of candidacy as provided in this chapter to fill a vacancy shall be placed before the voters.

(15) The nominee or candidate receiving the greater number of votes cast for each city office shall be elected.

(16) KRS Chapters 116 to 121 prescribing duties of county clerks and other public officers in the conduct of elections shall be applicable in all respects to nonpartisan city elections, except no election officer or other person within a polling place shall tell or indicate to a voter, by word of mouth or otherwise, the political affiliation of any candidate for city office.

Section 4. KRS 121.160 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each candidate shall designate a campaign treasurer to act as his agent at the time and at the office with which he files as a candidate on a duplicate form prescribed and furnished by the registry and until this requirement is met the candidate shall be listed as his own treasurer and accountable as such. The candidate may appoint himself or any registered voter in Kentucky as his campaign treasurer. The office with which the candidate is required to file shall immediately forward to the registry the duplicate copy of the completed form designating the candidate's campaign treasurer and shall attach the original to the candidate's filing papers. The office with which the candidate files shall promptly notify the registry when a candidate withdraws.

(2) The duties of a campaign treasurer shall be to:

(a) Designate a depository bank for all campaign funds and deposit all contributions in that depository;

(b) Keep detailed and exact accounts of contributions in general and by name, address, age, if under legal voting age, and occupation where the contribution exceeds three hundred dollars ($300); the occupation listed for the contributor shall be specific. A general classification, such as "businessman", shall be insufficient;

(c) Make or authorize all expenditures on behalf of a candidate. Any expenditure in excess of twenty-five dollars ($25) shall be by check and the treasurer's records shall disclose the name, address and occupation of every person or firm to whom made, and shall list the date and amount of such expenditure and the treasurer shall keep a receipted bill for each;

(d) Maintain all receipted bills and accounts required by this section for a period of four (4) years from the date he files his last report under KRS 121.180(3)~~(2)~~; and

(e) Make no payment to any person not directly providing goods or services with the intent to conceal payment to another.

(3) A candidate may remove a campaign treasurer at any time.

(4) In case of the death, resignation or removal of a campaign treasurer the candidate shall within three (3) days after receiving notice thereof by certified mail, return receipt requested, appoint a successor and shall file his name and address with the registry. The candidate shall be accountable as his own campaign treasurer if he fails to meet this filing requirement.

(5) A person may serve as campaign treasurer for more than one (1) candidate, but all reports must be made separately for each individual candidate.

(6) The candidate may pay a campaign treasurer a salary for his services which shall be considered a campaign expense and must comply with the reporting provisions of KRS 121.015 and 121.110 to 121.200 and those adopted by the registry.

Section 5. KRS 83A.165 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A candidate running to fill the unexpired term of any city office shall file his nomination papers in accordance with the provisions of KRS 83A.045, 118.365, 118.375, and 83A.047.

(2) Vacancies in the office of mayor or city legislative body that are to be filled temporarily by appointment shall be governed by the provisions of KRS 83A.040 and Section 152 of the Kentucky Constitution.

(3) Vacancies in the office of mayor or city legislative body that are to be filled by partisan election shall be governed by the following provisions:

(a) Vacancies in candidacy shall be governed by KRS 118.105;

(b) Nominations for unexpired terms shall be governed by KRS 118.115 and Section 152 of the Kentucky Constitution; and

(c) Independent candidates filing to fill a vacancy shall be governed by KRS 118.375.

(4) Vacancies in the office of mayor or city legislative body that are to be filled by nonpartisan election shall be governed by the following provisions:

(a) If the vacancy occurs not less than one hundred thirty-four (134) days before a May primary, candidates to fill the vacancy shall be nominated at that primary in the manner prescribed in KRS 83A.170; and

(b) If the vacancy occurs on or after the one hundred thirty-fourth day before a May primary, the election to fill the unexpired term shall be held in the manner prescribed in Section 152 of the Kentucky Constitution; and

(c) Vacancies in candidacy in any city of the fourth to sixth class, that has not conducted a nonpartisan primary election shall be governed by the provisions of KRS 83A.045(2)(b)6[~~7~~].

(d) The retirement system shall determine how much of the total cost represents payment for one (1) month of the service to be purchased and shall credit one (1) month of service to the member's account each time this amount has been paid. The first service credited shall represent the first calendar month of the service to be purchased and each succeeding month of service credit shall represent the succeeding months of that service.

(e) If the employee dies, retires, terminates employment, or does not continue employment in a position required to participate in the retirement system, the member, or in the case of death, the beneficiary, shall have thirty (30) days to pay the remaining principal of the purchase by lump sum. If the member or beneficiary does not pay the remaining cost, the retirement system shall refund to the member or the beneficiary the payment, payments or portion of a payment that does not represent a full month of service purchased.

The Chief Doorkeeper announced the arrival of the President of the Senate.

The President of the Senate assumed the Chair and called the Joint Session to order.

Representative Stumbo moved to dispense with a call of the roll. Agreed.

The Chief Doorkeeper announced the arrival of Dr. Thomas C. Boysen, Commissioner of Education.

Dr. Thomas C. Boysen, Commissioner of Education, addressed the Joint Session of the General Assembly as follows:

Greetings Governor Patton, Speaker Blandford, Senator Rose, and distinguished members of the Kentucky General Assembly and the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education.

On behalf of school children and their teachers, I come before you today to report on the condition of Kentucky schools. I appreciate this opportunity to give you a progress report on the Kentucky Education Reform Act, known as KERA.

You are "Keepers of a Dream" that is as old as America and as new as KERA. Our forebearers declared "that all men are created equal, that they are endowed with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." You invested courageously and wisely in that dream in the spring of 1990 when you enacted and funded KERA.

This dream broke forth in the June 1989 Supreme Court decision that declared "Each child, every child, in this Commonwealth must be provided with an equal opportunity to have an adequate education." The court gave you "sole responsibility for providing the system of common schools."

I want to commend you as individuals and as an institution for the unfailing interest and support you have given KERA during its infancy. Whenever the law was challenged, you were there to protect it. Whenever the law needed explanation, you were there to offer an interpretation, sometimes more than one. When issues of implementation arose, you were willing to roll up your sleeves and thrash out the solutions. Your committees and your staff have paid close attention to the unfolding of KERA and given our State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education, as well as the Education Department staff, thoughtful guidance and direction.

When people back home complained about the taxes, you stood firm and described the dream. When educators and board members sometimes gasped at the size of their challenge, you encouraged them and stood firm. For all of the above and for your warm welcome of me to the Commonwealth and to this challenge, I say "thank you."

The genius of the Reform Act grows out of the boldness of the Supreme Court decision that made two conclusions. First, it said there were "have" and "have not" school districts and that was unconstitutional. Second, the court said that even if money was redistributed and increased substantially, the existing education system would not produce adequate and equal education. Therefore, it declared unconstitutional the "entire sweep of the system — all its parts and parcels." You did not try to reconstruct a failed system, but you did create a new one up to the challenge.

Kentucky historian Thomas Clark says we are in the fourth period of major education reform since the state's founding 200 years ago. The others were in 1822, 1829-30 and 1908-11. The most comprehensive of those episodes was the 1908-11 plan. He says it had the same objective as our 1990 law — radical reform of schools — but it lacked the vision of House Bill 940.

Each of these three reforms fizzled, because they lacked leadership.

Mr. Clark is an ardent supporter of KERA, and he pins the future success of Kentucky on the success of KERA.

"If 1940 fails," he warns, "Kentucky from now on, as it always has, is going" to trail all other states "in education, economics and social and cultural affairs."

The challenge is great but your design is powerful. KERA implementation is growing in momentum and impact. Your timeline is six years and we are only one-fourth of the way there, but already many innovations are producing results.

FINANCE

In finance, where the goal is to have greater adequacy and greater equity, the schools have more money and the funds are most fairly distributed and better spent. In the first year of KERA, 1990-91, state funding rose nearly 24%. Because of the incentives you built in, local funding rose 25%, far surpassing expectations. Too little note has been made of the courage and commitment demonstrated by local school boards and their superintendents in making these tough taxation decisions. Considering all funding sources, Kentucky rose from 42nd to 37th among the states. Clearly, the down payment on fiscal adequacy was made!

As to equity, the gap between the richest group of school districts and the poorest group of school districts was reduced by one-third. The new money was well spent. School boards put it into hiring teachers to reduce class size and provide instruction in art, music and physical education. They hired teacher assistants to help in the primary program and school nurses to reach out to families. They bought safer school buses and purchased books, supplies and equipment. They raised salaries to attract and retain better teachers.

GOVERNANCE

Your governance reforms had the goal of creating excellence in policy leadership to match the excellence in teaching and learning that you sought. You knew that if greed, corruption and mismanagement were not rooted out, they would undermine school performance and sabotage public confidence.

KERA called for a new State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education appointed by the Governor and confirmed by this body. The eleven members you confirmed have shown independence, insight and persistence in holding me, the department and school districts accountable for keeping KERA's commitments.

You assigned the duties of Chief State School Officer to an appointed commissioner to serve as executive officer of the state board and to direct the Kentucky Department of Education. Management was reduced from 85 to 65 persons and 80% of the people in these positions are new to the department. Forty-three are from Kentucky and 22 are from other states. Let me assure you that the new department is firmly focused on making KERA happen and upon knowing the when, where and why of any shortfalls. That means we facilitate and assist. When that is not enough, we intervene and insist.

You created an office of education accountability and gave it strong leadership. I am pleased to report that this agency has been a powerful ally, together we have been able to confront corruption and insist upon compliance.

CURRICULUM

The heart of KERA is the set of curriculum reforms that decentralizes decisions about teaching and learning and centralizes the definition and measurement of school success.

The KERA report card that greeted you as you convened last week announced the good news about implementation. Significant progress has been made in every one of the powerful new educational initiatives. For this we are grateful to the teachers, for their hard work and cooperation, and all those people who have supported them.

Through school-based decision making, teachers, parents, and principals have taken unprecedented authority and responsibility for getting results. The goal is to have a system of world class schools by 1996. This is being achieved as the energy and creativity of teachers, students and parents is being unleashed fully, freely, and forcefully.

A forth grader in Pikeville participating in that district's performance assessment day asked recently, "Is this really a test?" She was working with a group of other youngsters on a social studies project upon which they would receive a group evaluation. Their individual mastery would be assessed on a separate writing task. When real world skills are presented on school tests, students take them seriously, so do teachers, principals and parents.

Nearly 50,000 students in each of the fourth, eighth and twelfth grades will participate in the 1991-92 assessment, taking tests in reading, mathematics, writing, science and social studies. These students will have to show what they can do with what they know. The results will form a baseline for each of our 1,400 schools against world class standards.

The preschool for three- and four-year-old children has made quick, steady progress. 75% of the income-eligible four-year-olds and 60% of three- and four-year-olds with disabilities are in school.

The new primary program will begin in September. Already, more than seven-thousand teachers have attended orientation workshops. Fourteen formal demonstration pilot programs are under way. And all elementary schools are to create implementation plans by April. We are aware of the high anxiety triggered by this change. Our best advice for teachers, staff and parents has been that they start with a modest program this fall, with steps they are confident will succeed. They can phase in additional elements during the next three years.

Another fast-starting project has been the family resource and youth services centers, which are dedicated to helping low-income people get access to already existing services. Students have been assisted in obtaining eye glasses, food, clothing, and health care. They have received mental health counseling and social services assistance. Hungry and sick students will not achieve peak performance. These centers help ensure that we will have healthy, ready-to-learn youngsters in school. One hundred thirty-three centers were launched with KERA grants.

KERA's extended school services reflect the commitment to help children keep up, rather than pay the price of catching up on dropping out. This program provides additional time for instruction at the end of school days, on weekends and during the summer. During reform's first year, twenty-five thousand students took advantage of summer school programs, and tutoring was provided for forty-six thousand children.

1992 will be a launching year for three criteria KERA components — regional service centers, professional development and the statewide technology network.

Eight regional service centers are becoming operational this month, providing professional development and technical assistance to schools and districts. The education reform programs asks teachers to make a giant leap forward. They deserve to be supported.

KERA's technology network will create student and teacher work stations and administrative management systems. We will announce a five-year master plan of implementation this month. This spring, every school and district will adopt a plan to acquire hardware and software. Systems are to begin operating this fall.

Achieving this level of success has not been without sacrifice. We are aware that many teachers have been working weekends to prepare for the task ahead. I say thank you to them.

Our journey with education reform is a long one: much untraveled terrain lies ahead. Kentucky educators truly are pathfinders in blazing a new trail for the pioneering states behind us. Any change as demanding as that presented by KERA guarantees a bumpy, and sometimes bruising implementation process. There will be many starts and stops as we search for the right answers to our challenge. Decentralization requires that local schools and districts solve their own problems, and the State Education Department will strike a balance between facilitating and monitoring. As we consider the individual programs of transformation that will catapult our schools into the future, it is important to recall that the whole will be greater than the sum of the parts only if we insist upon coordination and integration. For example, KERA aims to bring children to kindergarten ready to learn. This will require the preschool, primary, technology and family resource center programs to cooperate.

Above all else, in every area of reform, each player on the child's team must be invested in success. We must invite and challenge each child, every child, to take charge of his or her growth. This process begins at home, is accelerated in school and must continue for a lifetime.

THE CURRENT CHALLENGE

The General Assembly took up this challenge in healthier economic times for Kentucky and for the country. The president's recent trip to Asia underscores the problems of productivity and growth that afflict America. Along with educational opportunity, economic revitalization was an intention of KERA. Like the G.I. bill that followed World War II, KERA is investing in the education of a generation that will confront international competition on an unprecedented scale. It is this generation that must transform the Kentucky economy as the demand changes for raw materials and products. It is this generation that must be productive enough to support a growing population of retired people.

Never has so much been expected of such a slim work force. We cannot afford to have one-third of our students drop out. We cannot tolerate having even one student graduate chemically dependent. We cannot afford to have the mediocre skills, habits and attitudes of the past. Truly, there is no better time than today to see the connection between education and the economy. There is no better year than 1992 to let the word go forth across the state and nation that Kentucky is going to keep the dream, that Kentucky is going to stay the course.

And the nation is watching. As the economy has slumped, the need for dramatic improvement of the work force has come sharply into focus. The term "systemic change" has been invented to describe the comprehensive approach Kentucky has taken. The United States business roundtable has recommended our plan to every state. To deliver on goals set by the Governors and himself, President Bush has launched an America 2000 Program remarkably similar to KERA.

Three weeks ago, the Dallas Morning News published a series of four editorials examining the crisis in Texas schools. The writer spent a week in Kentucky and each of the articles made reference to our reform. The concluding piece stated:

"Only a few years ago, Kentucky seemed an unlikely candidate to lead the rest of the nation in school reform.

. . . If Kentucky could turn its system around, then surely Texas can embark on its own crusade to better educate its youngsters."

CONCLUSION

I would like to close with the optimism of the late Governor Bert Combs. In a summer 1991 article for the Harvard Journal on Legislation, Governor Combs wrote:

"Do not be surprised if we should, within the next decade, develop a first-class, worldwide educational system. ——Most people would think that is impossible, but Kentuckians do not believe that it is impossible."

For the public commitment shown by you and the Governor that education reform is a number one priority, even in these difficult times, we thank you.

Securing the peoples' right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness is the most worthy object of government. Rarely in this country has the goal been seen as clearly and approached as directly as it was in Kentucky in the Spring of 1990.

Advancing KERA in this session will require grit. It will require cooperation. It will demand diligence and intuition. It will call for patience and encouragement. All of these qualities were abundantly evident two years ago. As you feel the resurgence of these capacities, think of yourselves as the parents of a small child who is reaching out to its future. Think of yourselves as the keepers of a great dream which is flowing out of the past.

Thank you.

(5) A city legislative body may adopt the provisions of any local, statewide, or nationally recognized standard code and codifications of entire bodies of local legislation by an ordinance that identifies the subject matter by title, source, and date and incorporates the adopted provisions by reference without setting them out in full, if a copy accompanies the adopting ordinance and is made a part of the permanent records of the city.

(6) Unless otherwise provided by statute, a majority of a legislative body shall constitute a quorum and a vote of a majority of a quorum shall be sufficient to take action.

The legislative body shall provide by ordinance for the maintenance and safekeeping of the permanent records of the city. (12) The legislative body may adopt municipal orders. Orders [~~Any order~~] shall be in writing and may be adopted only at an official meeting. Orders [~~Any order~~] may be amended by a subsequent municipal order or ordinance. All orders adopted shall be maintained in an official order book.

(13) In lieu of an ordinance, a municipal order may be used for matters relating to the internal operation and functions of the municipality and to appoint or remove or approve appointment or removal of members of boards, commissions, and other agencies over which the city has control.

(14) All ordinances, and orders of the city may be proved by the signature of the city clerk; and when the ordinances are placed in a printed composite index or code of ordinances by authority of the city, the printed copy shall be received in evidence by any state court without further proof of the [~~such~~] ordinances.

(3) In this section, "crime stoppers organization" means an organization as defined by Section 1 of this Act.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 431 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Upon an order to repay a reward or part of a reward under Section 5 of this Act, the court shall assess this cost against the defendant in the same manner as other costs of prosecution are assessed against a defendant. The court shall order the defendant to:

(a) Pay the entire amount required when sentence is pronounced; or

(b) Pay the entire amount required at a later date specified by the court.

(2) After receiving a payment from a person ordered to make the payment under this section, the clerk of the court shall:

(a) Make a record of the payment;

(b) Forward the payment to the designated crime stoppers organization; and

(c) Record the forwarding of the payment.

Section 7. KRS 533.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The conditions of probation and conditional discharge shall be such as the court, in its discretion, deems reasonably necessary to insure that the defendant will lead a law-abiding life or to assist him to do so. The court shall provide as an explicit condition of every sentence to probation or conditional discharge that the defendant not commit another offense during the period for which the sentence remains subject to revocation.

(2) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge, the court may, in addition to any other reasonable condition, require that the defendant:

(a) Avoid injurious or vicious habits;

(b) Avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character;

(c) Work faithfully at suitable employment as far as possible;

(d) Undergo available medical or psychiatric treatment and remain in a specific institution as required for that purpose;

(e) Post a bond, without surety, conditioned on performance of any of the prescribed conditions;

(f) Support his dependents and meet other family responsibilities;

(g) Pay the cost of the proceeding as set by the court;

(h) Remain within a specified area;

(i) Report to the probation officer as directed;

(j) Permit the probation officer to visit him at his home or elsewhere; and

(k) Answer all reasonable inquiries by the probation officer and promptly notify the probation officer of any change in address or employment.

(3) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge in a case where a victim of a crime has suffered monetary damage as a result of the crime due to his property having been converted, stolen, or unlawfully obtained, or its value substantially decreased as a result of the crime, or where the victim suffered actual medical expenses, direct out-of-pocket losses, or loss of earning as a direct result of the crime, or if as a direct result of the crime the victim incurred medical expenses that were paid by the Cabinet for Human Resources, the Crime Victims Compensation Board, or any other governmental entity, the court shall order the defendant to make restitution in addition to any other penalty provided for the commission of the offense. Payment of restitution to the victim shall have priority over payment of restitution to any government agency. Restitution shall be ordered in the full amount of the damages, unless the damages exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or twice the amount of the gain from the commission of the offense, whichever is greater, in which case the higher of these two amounts shall be awarded. The court may, in lieu of ordering monetary restitution, order the defendant to make restitution by working for or on behalf of the victim. The court shall determine the number of hours of work necessary by applying the then prevailing federal minimum wage to the total amount of monetary damage caused by or incidental to the commission of the crime. The court may, with the consent of the agency, order the defendant to work as specified in KRS 533.070. Any work ordered pursuant to this section shall not be deemed employment for any purpose, nor shall the person performing the work be deemed an employee for any purpose. Where there is more than one (1) defendant or more than one (1) victim, restitution may be apportioned. Restitution shall be subject to the following additional terms and conditions:

(a) Restitution by payment may be ordered in a lump sum or in specified payments;

(b) Restitution by payment may be ordered paid through the circuit clerk who shall disburse the moneys as ordered by the court;

(c) Where property which is unlawfully in the possession of the defendant is in substantially undamaged condition from its condition at the time of the taking, return of the property shall be ordered in lieu of monetary restitution;

(d) Restitution by payment to governmental agencies shall be made through payments to and disbursement by the circuit clerk;

(e) The circuit clerk shall assess an additional fee of two percent (2%) to defray the administrative costs of collection of payments or property. This fee shall be paid by the defendant and shall enure to the general fund of the state treasury;

(f) When a defendant fails to make restitution ordered to be paid through the circuit clerk, the circuit clerk shall notify the court. The court shall hold a hearing to determine if the defendant is in contempt of the court or has violated the terms of his probation; and

(g) An order of restitution shall not preclude the owner of property or the victim who suffered personal physical or mental injury or out-of-pocket loss of earnings or support or other damages from proceeding in a civil action to recover damages from the defendant. A civil verdict shall be reduced by the amount paid under the criminal restitution order.

(4) In addition to any other terms and conditions imposed under this section, the court may require the probationer, as a condition of his probation, to make one (1) payment to a crime stoppers organization in an amount not to exceed the amount of the reward paid by a crime stoppers organization, as defined by Section 1 of this Act, relative to the probationer.

(5) When a defendant is sentenced to probation or conditional discharge, he shall be given a written statement explicitly setting forth the conditions under which he is being released.

(6)[~~(5)~~] When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge, the court, in addition to conditions imposed under this section, may require as a condition of the sentence that the defendant submit to a period of imprisonment in the county jail or to a period of home incarceration at whatever time or intervals, consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court shall determine. The time actually spent in confinement or home incarceration pursuant to this provision shall not exceed six (6) months or the maximum term of imprisonment assessed pursuant to KRS Chapter 532, whichever is the shorter. Time spent in confinement or home incarceration under this subsection shall be credited against the maximum term of imprisonment assessed for the defendant pursuant to KRS Chapter 532, if probation or conditional discharge is revoked and the defendant is sentenced to imprisonment. Any prohibitions against probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge under KRS 533.060(2), or 532.045 shall not apply to persons convicted of a misdemeanor or Class D felony and sentenced to a period of confinement or home incarceration under this section.

HB 156, AN ACT relating to state leases.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 45A.045 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall serve as the central procurement and contracting agency of the Commonwealth.

(a) The cabinet shall require all agencies to furnish an estimate of specific needs for supplies, materials, and equipment to be purchased by competitive bidding for the purpose of permitting scheduling of purchasing in large volume. The cabinet shall establish and enforce schedules for purchasing supplies, materials, and equipment. In addition, prior to the beginning of each fiscal year all agencies shall submit to the Finance and Administration Cabinet an estimate of all needs for supplies, materials, and equipment during that year which will have to be required through competitive bidding.

(b) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall have power, with the approval of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, to transfer between departments, to salvage, to exchange, and to condemn supplies, equipment, and real property.

(c) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall attempt in every practicable way to insure that state agencies are acquiring their real needs at the lowest possible cost.

(2) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall recommend regulations, rules, and procedures, and shall have supervision over all purchases by the various spending agencies, except as otherwise provided by law, and, subject to the approval of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, shall promulgate administrative regulations to govern purchasing by or for all these agencies. The cabinet shall publish a manual of procedures which shall be incorporated by reference as an administrative regulation pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A. This manual shall be distributed to agencies and shall be revised upon issuance of amendments to these procedures. No purchase or contract shall be binding on the state or any agency thereof unless approved by the Finance and Administration Cabinet or made under general regulations prescribed by the cabinet.

(3) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall purchase or otherwise acquire, or, with the approval of the secretary, may delegate and control the purchase and acquisition of the combined requirements of all spending agencies of the state, including, but not limited to, interests in real property, contractual services, rentals of all types, supplies, materials, equipment, and services.

(4) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall sell, trade, or otherwise dispose of all property (including any interest in real property) of the state which is not needed, or has become unsuitable for public use, or would be more suitable to the public's interest if used in another manner, as determined by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet. The determination of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall be set forth in an order, and shall be reached only after review of a written request by the agency desiring to dispose of the property. This request shall describe the property and state the reasons why the agency believes the property should be disposed. All instruments required by law to be recorded which convey any interest in any such real property so disposed of shall be executed and signed by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet and approved by the Governor. Unless the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet deems it in the best interest of the state to proceed otherwise, all such property (including any interests in real property) shall be sold either by invitation of sealed bids or by public auction. The selling price of any interest in real property shall not be less than the appraised value thereof as determined by the cabinet, or the Transportation Cabinet for such requirements of that cabinet.

(5) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall exercise general supervision and control over all warehouses, storerooms, and stores and of all inventories of supplies, services, and construction belonging to the Commonwealth. The cabinet shall adopt regulations to require agencies to take and maintain inventories of plant property, buildings, structures, other fixed assets, and equipment. The cabinet shall conduct periodic physical audits of inventories.

(6) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall establish and maintain programs for the development and use of purchasing specifications and for the inspection, testing, and acceptance of supplies, services, and construction.

(7) Nothing in this section shall deprive the Finance and Administration Cabinet from negotiating with vendors who maintain a general service administration price agreement with the United States of America or any agency thereof. No contract executed under this provision shall authorize a price higher than is contained in the contract between the general service administration and the vendor affected.

(8) Except as provided in KRS Chapters 175, 176, 177 and 180, and subject to the provisions of this code, the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall purchase or otherwise acquire all real property determined to be needed for state use, upon approval of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet as to the determination of need and as to the action of purchase or other acquisition. The amount paid for this real property shall not exceed the appraised value as determined by the cabinet or the Transportation Cabinet (for such requirements of that cabinet), or the value set by eminent domain procedure.

(9) The state shall not employ a person unless prior to employment the person in writing notifies the Attorney General and the Governor of any current leases awarded to the person pursuant to this code or KRS 56.800 to 56.823.

(10) (a) While serving as an official identified in KRS 61.786, a member of the Kentucky General Assembly, a member of the Kentucky Supreme Court, or a member of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, a person may lease property to the state pursuant to this code or KRS 56.800 to 56.823.

(b) However, except when a lease is modified pursuant to KRS 56.813:

1. The property let shall be limited to that which the person had under lease with the state when be began the service specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection; and

2. The person shall not receive better terms and conditions in his state leases than those in effect when he began his specified service.

(11) Subject to the provisions of this code or KRS 56.800 to 56.823, real property or any interest therein may be purchased, leased, or otherwise acquired from any officer or employee of any agency of the state upon a finding by the Finance and Administration Cabinet, based upon a written application by the head of the agency requesting the purchase, and approved by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet and the Governor, that the employee has not either himself or through any other person influenced or attempted to influence either the agency requesting the acquisition of the property or the Finance and Administration Cabinet in connection with such acquisition. Whenever such an acquisition is consummated, the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall forward the request and finding to the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall record and keep these documents [~~shall be recorded and kept by the Secretary of State~~] along with the other documents recorded pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 56.

(12) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall maintain records of all purchases and sales made under its authority and shall make periodic summary reports of all transactions to the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, the Governor, and the General Assembly. The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall also report trends in costs and prices, including savings realized through improved practices, to the above authorities. The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall also compile an annual report of state purchases by all spending agencies in the state's statewide accounting and reporting system. The report format shall include, but not be limited to, dollar amount, volume, type of purchase, and vendor.

(13)[~~(10)~~] For capital construction projects, subject to the provisions of this code, the bidding may be on whichever of the following methods, in the judgment of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, offers the lowest real cost to the taxpayer:

(a) A total design-bid basis;

(b) A package system commonly referred to as "turnkey";

(c) Phase bidding commonly referred to as "fast track"; or

(d) Construction management.

Bids shall be reviewed by the engineering staff to assure quality and value, and compliance with bid procedures. All specifications shall be written to promote competition.

(14)[~~(11)~~] The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall have control and supervision over all purchases of energy consuming equipment, supplies and related equipment purchased or acquired by any agency of the state as provided in this code, and shall designate by regulation the manner in which an energy consuming item will be purchased so as to promote energy conservation and acquisition of energy efficient products. Major energy components shall be amortized on a seven (7) to ten (10) years' recovery basis and shall take into consideration the projected cost of fuel. The Governor's Office for Coal and Energy Policy shall conduct a thorough economic feasibility analysis on any major energy using component of at least three million (3,000,000) BTU's per hour heat input and must issue a certificate of economic feasibility prior to the Finance and Administration Cabinet's purchasing or retrofitting any such component that utilizes any fuel other than coal. The economic feasibility analysis shall consist of life-cycle cost comparisons of a component that would utilize coal and one(s) that would utilize any fuel other than coal. For such analysis, the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall provide detailed estimates of equipment purchase price, installation cost, annual operation and maintenance costs, and usage patterns of energy-using components.

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 56.800 TO 56.823 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, or his designee, may determine protests of actual or prospective lease proposers in connection with the solicitation or selection for award of a lease.

(2) Any actual or prospective lease proposer who is aggrieved in connection with the solicitation or selection for award of a lease may file a protest with the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet. A protest shall be filed promptly and in any event within two (2) calendar weeks after the aggrieved person knows, or should have known, the facts giving rise to the protest. All protests shall be in writing.

(3) The secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, or his designee, shall promptly issue a decision in writing. A copy of the decision shall be mailed or otherwise furnished to the aggrieved party and shall state the reasons for the action taken.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 56.800 TO 56.823 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If a protest is filed in time under subsection (2) of Section 2 of this Act, the Commonwealth shall not proceed further with the solicitation or award involved, until the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, or his designee, makes a written and adequately supported determination that continuation of the procurement is necessary to protect substantial interests of the Commonwealth.

Section 4. KRS 56.803 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When an agency determines that it will need office or other space, the agency shall submit a request for the acquisition of the additional space to the Department for Facilities Management in the Finance and Administration Cabinet. Except in the case of an emergency as described at KRS 56.805(3), an agency shall submit its space request in writing to the department at least ninety (90) calendar days before the space requested will be required by the agency. In the case of an emergency, an agency shall communicate its space needs to the department pursuant to KRS 56.805(3) as soon as an agency knows that it will need the space. If the commissioner of the Department for Facilities Management determines that insufficient space has been allocated to the agency making the request and that it is appropriate to lease additional space for the agency making the request, he shall acquire the space required by lease as provided by KRS 56.800 to 56.823 and KRS 43.050, 48.111, and 48.190.

(2) The Department for Facilities Management shall review each agency space request to determine whether space suitable to meet the agency's reasonable needs may be available in a state-owned or occupied building. If it is determined that there is suitable space available in a state-owned or occupied building, the commissioner shall notify the agency by letter. A copy of the letter shall be kept on file.

(3) If it is determined that there is no suitable space available in a state-owned or occupied building, the department shall comply with the procedures set forth in this section in the leasing of space, except as otherwise provided in KRS 56.800 to 58.823 and KRS 43.050, 48.111, and 48.190.

(4) The department shall draw up general requirement specifications for the space required. These general requirement specifications shall not be changed except, at the discretion of the commissioner, when the lease process is initiated again pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (15) of this section or pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (16) of this section. The general requirement specifications shall be kept on file.

(5) In soliciting the interest of lessors who have property to let in a county where space is sought, the department shall comply with procedures established in this subsection.

(a) The department shall place newspaper advertisements. Each advertisement shall contain general information concerning the agency requirements for the space sought to reasonably inform persons having property to let within the county of the type of space wanted, the general location of the property, and the number of square feet needed, and shall state the last time, date, and place that written responses shall be received. When it is anticipated that a lease may be negotiated containing deviations or variations from the terms and conditions of the state standard lease form prescribed by the Division of Real Properties, within the department, any deviations or variations shall be noted in the advertisement.

(b) If a daily newspaper is published, and of general circulation, in the county where the space is sought, an advertisement shall be published two (2) times in that newspaper.

(c) If there is not a daily newspaper published, and of general circulation, in the county where the space is sought, an advertisement shall be published one (1) time in a weekly newspaper published, and of general circulation, in the county where the space is sought and two (2) times in a daily newspaper not published, but of general circulation, in the county where space is sought.

(d) If neither a daily newspaper nor a weekly newspaper is published, and of general circulation, in the county where the space is sought, an advertisement shall be published two (2) times in a daily newspaper not published, but of general circulation, in the county where the space is sought, and a copy of the advertisement shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the county courthouse.

(e) If the Commonwealth intends to lease space in any county when the estimated annual rental charge will exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), the requirements established in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection shall be followed. In addition, advertisements shall be published two (2) times in at least two (2) daily newspapers having broad circulation within the Commonwealth, to be designated by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet.

(f) When an advertisement is published in a daily newspaper, the advertisement shall appear on any consecutive Monday and Tuesday.

(g) The Department for Facilities Management may use any means available to notify landlords that advertisements have been placed.

(6) To respond to a newspaper advertisement, a property owner, or his representative, shall respond in writing on or before the time and date designated in the advertisement and shall state in the writing the type and location of the property, the name and address of the property owner, and the date of availability of the property. The department shall deal only with individuals who have submitted written responses on or before the time and date designated in the advertisement.

(7) All written responses submitted on or before the time and date designated shall be opened at the same time, publicly read, and kept on file by the department.

(8) Within five (5) days of the opening of written responses submitted on or before the time and date designated, the department shall mail general requirement specifications to each person who submitted a written response on or before the time and date designated. The same general requirement specifications shall be mailed to each person.

(9) After the general requirement specifications have been mailed, except as provided in paragraph (a) of subsection (13) of this section, the commissioner, and department employees under his supervision, may negotiate with persons who submitted written responses on or before the time and date designated. If in the course of negotiations, a person proposes terms and conditions of lease different from those contained in the state standard lease form which are determined to be in the Commonwealth's best interest to accept, but no mention of the acceptability thereof has been made in the advertisement placed pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, all other persons who submitted written responses on or before the time and date designated shall be advised by letter of the terms and conditions and shall be allowed to incorporate the terms and conditions in written proposals when submitted pursuant to subsection (12) of this section. A copy of each of these letters shall be kept on file.

(10) After the general requirement specifications have been mailed, the department shall inspect each space proposed to be leased to determine its suitability to the reasonable needs of the agency for whose use the property is sought. The owner of the property, or his representative, shall provide access to the property for such inspection. A report of the findings about each property inspected shall be submitted on a site evaluation form to the commissioner of the department. Completed site evaluation forms shall be kept on file.

(11) After the commissioner has reviewed the completed site evaluation forms, he shall send to each owner of property, or his representative, a letter informing the person of what would have to be done to bring the property up to general and specific requirement specifications. The commissioner's letter shall also invite each person to submit a written proposal on a form created by the Department for Facilities Management. A copy of the form shall be enclosed with each letter. A written proposal shall constitute a best and final offer. The department shall not consider a written proposal unless it is submitted on a department form on or before the time and date designated in the letter. A copy of each letter shall be kept on file.

(12) All written proposals submitted on or before the time and date designated shall be opened at the same time, publicly identified by the name of the property owner and the location of the property, and kept on file.

(13) Except pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (15) of this section, when the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall not apply, from the time that written proposals are opened until the awarding of a lease, the department:

(a) Shall not negotiate or agree to changes in the terms of written proposals except to correct technical errors;

(b) Shall log in all contacts between department employees and any person who is not a department employee concerning [~~with an interest in~~] the awarding of a lease. The log shall state the time, date, place, and a summary of the substance of each contact. Each log entry shall be signed by the department employee who was contacted. After the lease is awarded, the log shall be kept as a department record.

(14) The commissioner shall assess the proposals, taking into account factors including, but not limited to: consultation with the head of the agency for whose use the space is sought; the location and accessibility of the property to the public; its condition and state of repair; its conformity with the requirements of occupational health and safety regulations; its conformity with applicable state fire, health, safety and sanitation requirements; the proposed rental rates; utility and janitorial costs; agency moving costs; and whether the property proposed is in substantial conformity with the advertised requirements and general and specific requirement specifications.

(15) The commissioner, relying exclusively on his assessment made pursuant to subsection (14) of this section, shall:

(a) Choose the best proposal in the interest of the Commonwealth;

(b) Be permitted to negotiate with a potential lessor if he was the only responsive and responsible potential lessor who submitted a proposal; or

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, reject all proposals when none is in the Commonwealth's best interest to accept as assessed according to the factors stated in subsection (14) of this section and may, at his discretion, initiate the lease process again.

(16) (a) The commissioner shall award or decline to award a lease to the potential lessor who submitted the best proposal pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (15) of this section or who negotiated with the commissioner pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (15) of this section. However, the commissioner shall not award a lease to a potential lessor who negotiated with the commissioner pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (15) of this section if that potential lessor's proposal after negotiations was not in the Commonwealth's best interest to accept as assessed according to the factors stated in subsection (14) of this section, and the commissioner shall not award a lease to a person other than a potential lessor prescribed in this paragraph.

(b) If the commissioner declines to award a lease, he may, at his discretion, initiate the lease process again.

(17) The commissioner shall put in writing the justifications for his decisions made pursuant to subsections (15) and (16) of this section. This writing shall be kept on file.

(18) The department shall send to each person who submitted a written response on or before the time and date designated in the advertisement pursuant to subsection (6) of this section, but who was not awarded the lease, a letter stating the selected property to be leased, and that the person has a right to examine the leasing records relevant to the lease that was awarded. If the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee, pursuant to KRS 56.823(2), will review the awarding of a lease, each letter shall state that fact. A copy of each of these letters shall be kept on file.

Section 5. KRS 56.813 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An agency may request that the Finance and Administration Cabinet provide additional space in a building in which space is already leased by the state. If the cabinet determines there is need for more space, the current lease may be amended, with agreement of the lessor, to increase the leased space. However, the rental rate paid for the additional space shall not exceed the square foot rental rate fixed by the original lease. A lease may also be modified with agreement of the lessor to decrease the number of square feet leased and the rent shall be appropriately reduced.

(2) (a) When an agency occupying leased premises desires improvements in the premises, the agency shall obtain the cabinet secretary's approval for the improvements at an estimated cost before the lessor makes the improvements.

1. If the improvements cost more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), the agency shall obtain the cabinet secretary's approval for the rent increase necessary to amortize the cost of the improvements in full. No other financing method shall be used.

2. If the improvements cost one thousand dollars ($1,000) or less, the agency shall obtain the cabinet secretary's approval for the dollar amount necessary to pay for the cost of the improvements at direct state expense or the rent increase necessary to amortize the cost of the improvements in full. No other financing method shall be used.

(b) Any rent increase necessary to amortize a cost pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection shall not extend beyond the period required to accomplish the agreed amortization.

(c) The cabinet secretary shall amend a lease to reflect a rent increase necessary to amortize a cost pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, and the amendment shall state that the rent increase is for the purpose of amortizing this cost. [~~The cabinet may amend a lease of private property to provide for an increase in the rental rate when the lessor has made improvements in the leased property at the request of and to meet the needs of the state agency occupying the premises, if the improvements and rent increase have the prior approval of the cabinet secretary. The rent increase shall be, and shall be identified as being, for the purpose of amortizing in full or in part the cost incurred by the owner at the state's request. Any increase for this purpose shall not extend beyond the period required to accomplish the agreed amortization.~~

~~(3) No improvement of a permanent nature shall be made at direct state expense in privately leased property. No improvements of a permanent nature may be made at direct state expense in publicly-owned leased property unless the Commonwealth shall have the leasehold interest in the property of a duration sufficient to permit amortization of the cost of the improvement over the life of the lease.~~]

(3)[~~(4)~~] Any modification to an existing lease which is required because of an emergency as described at KRS 56.805(3) shall be made pursuant to KRS 56.805(3) and (4) and this section.

(4)[~~(5)~~] The Division of Real Properties, within the Department for Facilities Management, shall maintain a register of all proposed lease modifications which, if approved, will result in the payment of a square foot rate for the leased space which is greater than the square foot rate contained in the original lease. All such proposed modifications shall be filed and kept in the register for public inspection and comment for thirty (30) calendar days. Comments received from the public during the period shall be considered before the lease modification is executed by the parties and becomes binding against the Commonwealth. After receiving comments, if the secretary determines that the proposed modifications are not in the interest of the Commonwealth, he may require the agency to continue operation in its present space or cancel the lease and seek more suitable space. The lessor, under any lease proposed to be modified as contemplated therein, shall be advised of the requirements of this subsection and cautioned that the Commonwealth shall have no liability for any action undertaken by the lessor in anticipation of, but prior to execution of, the modifications of the lease.

Section 6. KRS 56.823 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall report information on leases and lease modifications awarded pursuant to KRS 56.800 to 56.823 and KRS 43.050, 48.111, and 48.190 to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee as required by this section.

(2) Any lease awarded pursuant to KRS 56.803 for which the annual rental cost will exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) shall be reported to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee within thirty (30) days after execution. The report shall include:

(a) The name of the agency that will occupy the premises;

(b) The name of the lessor;

(e) A copy of the writing required by KRS 56.803(17);

(f) A statement as to whether the Finance and Administration Cabinet complied with the requirements established in KRS 56.800 to 56.823 and KRS 43.050, 48.111, and 48.190. If the cabinet has not complied with any requirement, the cabinet shall explain why;

(g) An explanation of why the Finance and Administration Cabinet chose this lessor over his competition; and

(h) A cost comparison between the cost per square foot of the leased space and the average cost per square foot of comparable space the state leases in the same county. If there are factors which make the comparison misleading, the cabinet shall inform the committee of these factors.

(3) Any lease awarded pursuant to KRS 56.805(2) for which the annual rental cost will exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) shall be reported to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee within thirty (30) days after execution. The report shall state the information required by paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (f), (g), and (h) of subsection (2) of this section and the procedure the department followed to obtain the lease. (a) The information required by paragraphs (a), (b), (f), (g), and (h) of subsection (2) of this section;

(b) The terms of lease before and after the emergency; and

(c) The procedure the department followed after the emergency to obtain a lease.

(5) (a) Any built-to-suit lease awarded pursuant to KRS 56.816 shall be reported to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee within thirty (30) days after execution. The report shall state on what basis the Department for Facilities Management has determined that there is no space to let in the relevant community that will be suitable to meet the space needs of the agency; on what basis a determination has been made by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, with the approval of the Governor, that the construction of a building by the Commonwealth to meet the need is not economically or otherwise feasible; and the economic justification for awarding a built-to-suit lease pursuant to KRS 56.816. The report shall further state the information required by paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (f), (g), and (h) of subsection (2) of this section.

(b) Any built-to-suit lease awarded pursuant to KRS 56.820 shall be reported to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee within thirty (30) days after execution. (7) (a) Except in the case of an emergency as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, any modification to an existing lease, made pursuant to KRS 56.813, that is less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) shall be reported to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee within thirty (30) days after execution, and any modification to an existing lease, made pursuant to KRS 56.813, that is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more shall be reported to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee before execution. In either case, the report shall consist of:

2. The reason for the modification;

3. The name of the lessor;

4. Any comments received from the public pursuant to KRS 56.813(4)[~~(5)~~]; and

5. A statement as to whether the Finance and Administration Cabinet complied with the requirements in KRS 56.813. If the cabinet has not complied with any requirement, the cabinet shall explain why.

(b) Any modification to an existing lease which is required because of an emergency as described at KRS 56.805(3) shall be reported to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee within thirty (30) days after execution. HB 156, AN ACT relating to state leases.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 45A.045 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall serve as the central procurement and contracting agency of the Commonwealth.

(a) The cabinet shall require all agencies to furnish an estimate of specific needs for supplies, materials, and equipment to be purchased by competitive bidding for the purpose of permitting scheduling of purchasing in large volume. The cabinet shall establish and enforce schedules for purchasing supplies, materials, and equipment. In addition, prior to the beginning of each fiscal year all agencies shall submit to the Finance and Administration Cabinet an estimate of all needs for supplies, materials, and equipment during that year which will have to be required through competitive bidding.

(b) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall have power, with the approval of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, to transfer between departments, to salvage, to exchange, and to condemn supplies, equipment, and real property.

(c) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall attempt in every practicable way to insure that state agencies are acquiring their real needs at the lowest possible cost.

(2) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall recommend regulations, rules, and procedures, and shall have supervision over all purchases by the various spending agencies, except as otherwise provided by law, and, subject to the approval of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, shall promulgate administrative regulations to govern purchasing by or for all these agencies. The cabinet shall publish a manual of procedures which shall be incorporated by reference as an administrative regulation pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A. This manual shall be distributed to agencies and shall be revised upon issuance of amendments to these procedures. No purchase or contract shall be binding on the state or any agency thereof unless approved by the Finance and Administration Cabinet or made under general regulations prescribed by the cabinet.

(3) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall purchase or otherwise acquire, or, with the approval of the secretary, may delegate and control the purchase and acquisition of the combined requirements of all spending agencies of the state, including, but not limited to, interests in real property, contractual services, rentals of all types, supplies, materials, equipment, and services.

(4) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall sell, trade, or otherwise dispose of all property (including any interest in real property) of the state which is not needed, or has become unsuitable for public use, or would be more suitable to the public's interest if used in another manner, as determined by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet. The determination of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall be set forth in an order, and shall be reached only after review of a written request by the agency desiring to dispose of the property. This request shall describe the property and state the reasons why the agency believes the property should be disposed. All instruments required by law to be recorded which convey any interest in any such real property so disposed of shall be executed and signed by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet and approved by the Governor. Unless the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet deems it in the best interest of the state to proceed otherwise, all such property (including any interests in real property) shall be sold either by invitation of sealed bids or by public auction. The selling price of any interest in real property shall not be less than the appraised value thereof as determined by the cabinet, or the Transportation Cabinet for such requirements of that cabinet.

(5) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall exercise general supervision and control over all warehouses, storerooms, and stores and of all inventories of supplies, services, and construction belonging to the Commonwealth. (7) Nothing in this section shall deprive the Finance and Administration Cabinet from negotiating with vendors who maintain a general service administration price agreement with the United States of America or any agency thereof. No contract executed under this provision shall authorize a price higher than is contained in the contract between the general service administration and the vendor affected.

(8) Except as provided in KRS Chapters 175, 176, 177 and 180, and subject to the provisions of this code, the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall purchase or otherwise acquire all real property determined to be needed for state use, upon approval of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet as to the determination of need and as to the action of purchase or other acquisition. The amount paid for this real property shall not exceed the appraised value as determined by the cabinet or the Transportation Cabinet (for such requirements of that cabinet), or the value set by eminent domain procedure.

(9) All state job applications shall provide space for an applicant to disclose whether he does or does not have an interest in a state lease awarded pursuant to this code or KRS 56.800 to 56.823. If the applicant indicates he does have an interest, the Department of Personnel shall notify both the Governor and the Attorney General prior to the hiring of the applicant. If an applicant intentionally fails to disclose any interest in a state lease or leases, it shall be grounds for dismissal.

Whenever such an acquisition is consummated, the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall forward the request and finding to the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall record and keep these documents [~~shall be recorded and kept by the Secretary of State~~] along with the other documents recorded pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 56.

(12) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall maintain records of all purchases and sales made under its authority and shall make periodic summary reports of all transactions to the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, the Governor, and the General Assembly. Major energy components shall be amortized on a seven (7) to ten (10) years' recovery basis and shall take into consideration the projected cost of fuel. The Governor's Office for Coal and Energy Policy shall conduct a thorough economic feasibility analysis on any major energy using component of at least three million (3,000,000) BTU's per hour heat input and must issue a certificate of economic feasibility prior to the Finance and Administration Cabinet's purchasing or retrofitting any such component that utilizes any fuel other than coal. The economic feasibility analysis shall consist of life-cycle cost comparisons of a component that would utilize coal and one(s) that would utilize any fuel other than coal. For such analysis, the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall provide detailed estimates of equipment purchase price, installation cost, annual operation and maintenance costs, and usage patterns of energy-using components.

(2) Any actual or prospective lease proposer who is aggrieved in connection with the solicitation or selection for award of a lease may file a protest with the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet. A protest shall be filed promptly and in any event within two (2) calendar weeks after the aggrieved person knows, or should have known, the facts giving rise to the protest. All protests shall be in writing.

(3) The secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, or his designee, shall promptly issue a decision in writing. A copy of the decision shall be mailed or otherwise furnished to the aggrieved party and shall state the reasons for the action taken.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 56.800 TO 56.823 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If a protest is filed in time under subsection (2) of Section 2 of this Act, the Commonwealth shall not proceed further with the solicitation or award involved, until the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, or his designee, makes a written and adequately supported determination that continuation of the procurement is necessary to protect substantial interests of the Commonwealth.

Section 4. KRS 56.803 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When an agency determines that it will need office or other space, the agency shall submit a request for the acquisition of the additional space to the Department for Facilities Management in the Finance and Administration Cabinet. Except in the case of an emergency as described at KRS 56.805(3), an agency shall submit its space request in writing to the department at least ninety (90) calendar days before the space requested will be required by the agency. In the case of an emergency, an agency shall communicate its space needs to the department pursuant to KRS 56.805(3) as soon as an agency knows that it will need the space. If the commissioner of the Department for Facilities Management determines that insufficient space has been allocated to the agency making the request and that it is appropriate to lease additional space for the agency making the request, he shall acquire the space required by lease as provided by KRS 56.800 to 56.823 and KRS 43.050, 48.111, and 48.190.

(2) The Department for Facilities Management shall review each agency space request to determine whether space suitable to meet the agency's reasonable needs may be available in a state-owned or occupied building. If it is determined that there is suitable space available in a state-owned or occupied building, the commissioner shall notify the agency by letter. A copy of the letter shall be kept on file.

(3) If it is determined that there is no suitable space available in a state-owned or occupied building, the department shall comply with the procedures set forth in this section in the leasing of space, except as otherwise provided in KRS 56.800 to 58.823 and KRS 43.050, 48.111, and 48.190.

(4) The department shall draw up general requirement specifications for the space required. These general requirement specifications shall not be changed except, at the discretion of the commissioner, when the lease process is initiated again pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (15) of this section or pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (16) of this section. The general requirement specifications shall be kept on file.

(5) In soliciting the interest of lessors who have property to let in a county where space is sought, the department shall comply with procedures established in this subsection.

(a) The department shall place newspaper advertisements. Each advertisement shall contain general information concerning the agency requirements for the space sought to reasonably inform persons having property to let within the county of the type of space wanted, the general location of the property, and the number of square feet needed, and shall state the last time, date, and place that written responses shall be received. When it is anticipated that a lease may be negotiated containing deviations or variations from the terms and conditions of the state standard lease form prescribed by the Division of Real Properties, within the department, any deviations or variations shall be noted in the advertisement.

(b) If a daily newspaper is published, and of general circulation, in the county where the space is sought, an advertisement shall be published two (2) times in that newspaper.

(c) If there is not a daily newspaper published, and of general circulation, in the county where the space is sought, an advertisement shall be published one (1) time in a weekly newspaper published, and of general circulation, in the county where the space is sought and two (2) times in a daily newspaper not published, but of general circulation, in the county where space is sought.

(d) If neither a daily newspaper nor a weekly newspaper is published, and of general circulation, in the county where the space is sought, an advertisement shall be published two (2) times in a daily newspaper not published, but of general circulation, in the county where the space is sought, and a copy of the advertisement shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the county courthouse.

(e) If the Commonwealth intends to lease space in any county when the estimated annual rental charge will exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), the requirements established in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection shall be followed. In addition, advertisements shall be published two (2) times in at least two (2) daily newspapers having broad circulation within the Commonwealth, to be designated by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet.

(f) When an advertisement is published in a daily newspaper, the advertisement shall appear on any consecutive Monday and Tuesday.

(g) The Department for Facilities Management may use any means available to notify landlords that advertisements have been placed.

(6) To respond to a newspaper advertisement, a property owner, or his representative, shall respond in writing on or before the time and date designated in the advertisement and shall state in the writing the type and location of the property, the name and address of the property owner, and the date of availability of the property. The department shall deal only with individuals who have submitted written responses on or before the time and date designated in the advertisement.

(7) All written responses submitted on or before the time and date designated shall be opened at the same time, publicly read, and kept on file by the department.

(8) Within five (5) days of the opening of written responses submitted on or before the time and date designated, the department shall mail general requirement specifications to each person who submitted a written response on or before the time and date designated. The same general requirement specifications shall be mailed to each person.

(9) After the general requirement specifications have been mailed, except as provided in paragraph (a) of subsection (13) of this section, the commissioner, and department employees under his supervision, may negotiate with persons who submitted written responses on or before the time and date designated. If in the course of negotiations, a person proposes terms and conditions of lease different from those contained in the state standard lease form which are determined to be in the Commonwealth's best interest to accept, but no mention of the acceptability thereof has been made in the advertisement placed pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, all other persons who submitted written responses on or before the time and date designated shall be advised by letter of the terms and conditions and shall be allowed to incorporate the terms and conditions in written proposals when submitted pursuant to subsection (12) of this section. A copy of each of these letters shall be kept on file.

(10) After the general requirement specifications have been mailed, the department shall inspect each space proposed to be leased to determine its suitability to the reasonable needs of the agency for whose use the property is sought. The owner of the property, or his representative, shall provide access to the property for such inspection. A report of the findings about each property inspected shall be submitted on a site evaluation form to the commissioner of the department. Completed site evaluation forms shall be kept on file.

(11) After the commissioner has reviewed the completed site evaluation forms, he shall send to each owner of property, or his representative, a letter informing the person of what would have to be done to bring the property up to general and specific requirement specifications. The commissioner's letter shall also invite each person to submit a written proposal on a form created by the Department for Facilities Management. A copy of the form shall be enclosed with each letter. A written proposal shall constitute a best and final offer. The department shall not consider a written proposal unless it is submitted on a department form on or before the time and date designated in the letter. A copy of each letter shall be kept on file.

(12) All written proposals submitted on or before the time and date designated shall be opened at the same time, publicly identified by the name of the property owner and the location of the property, and kept on file.

(13) Except pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (15) of this section, when the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall not apply, from the time that written proposals are opened until the awarding of a lease, the department:

(a) Shall not negotiate or agree to changes in the terms of written proposals except to correct technical errors;

(b) Shall log in all contacts between department employees and any person who is not a department employee concerning [~~with an interest in~~] the awarding of a lease. The log shall state the time, date, place, and a summary of the substance of each contact. Each log entry shall be signed by the department employee who was contacted. After the lease is awarded, the log shall be kept as a department record and shall be subject to the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

(14) The commissioner shall assess the proposals, taking into account factors including, but not limited to: consultation with the head of the agency for whose use the space is sought; the location and accessibility of the property to the public; its condition and state of repair; its conformity with the requirements of occupational health and safety regulations; its conformity with applicable state fire, health, safety and sanitation requirements; the proposed rental rates; utility and janitorial costs; agency moving costs; and whether the property proposed is in substantial conformity with the advertised requirements and general and specific requirement specifications.

(15) The commissioner, relying exclusively on his assessment made pursuant to subsection (14) of this section, shall:

(a) Choose the best proposal in the interest of the Commonwealth;

(b) Be permitted to negotiate with a potential lessor if he was the only responsive and responsible potential lessor who submitted a proposal; or

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, reject all proposals when none is in the Commonwealth's best interest to accept as assessed according to the factors stated in subsection (14) of this section and may, at his discretion, initiate the lease process again.

(16) (a) The commissioner shall award or decline to award a lease to the potential lessor who submitted the best proposal pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (15) of this section or who negotiated with the commissioner pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (15) of this section. However, the commissioner shall not award a lease to a potential lessor who negotiated with the commissioner pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (15) of this section if that potential lessor's proposal after negotiations was not in the Commonwealth's best interest to accept as assessed according to the factors stated in subsection (14) of this section, and the commissioner shall not award a lease to a person other than a potential lessor prescribed in this paragraph.

(b) If the commissioner declines to award a lease, he may, at his discretion, initiate the lease process again.

(17) The commissioner shall put in writing the justifications for his decisions made pursuant to subsections (15) and (16) of this section. This writing shall be kept on file.

(18) The department shall send to each person who submitted a written response on or before the time and date designated in the advertisement pursuant to subsection (6) of this section, but who was not awarded the lease, a letter stating the selected property to be leased, and that the person has a right to examine the leasing records relevant to the lease that was awarded. If the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee, pursuant to KRS 56.823(2), will review the awarding of a lease, each letter shall state that fact. A copy of each of these letters shall be kept on file.

Section 5. KRS 56.813 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An agency may request that the Finance and Administration Cabinet provide additional space in a building in which space is already leased by the state. If the cabinet determines there is need for more space, the current lease may be amended, with agreement of the lessor, to increase the leased space. However, the rental rate paid for the additional space shall not exceed the square foot rental rate fixed by the original lease. A lease may also be modified with agreement of the lessor to decrease the number of square feet leased and the rent shall be appropriately reduced.

(2) (a) When an agency occupying leased premises desires improvements in the premises, the agency shall obtain the cabinet secretary's approval for the improvements at an estimated cost before the lessor makes the improvements.

1. If the improvements cost more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), the agency shall obtain the cabinet secretary's approval for the rent increase necessary to amortize the cost of the improvements in full. No other financing method shall be used.

2. If the improvements cost one thousand dollars ($1,000) or less, the agency shall obtain the cabinet secretary's approval for the dollar amount necessary to pay for the cost of the improvements at direct state expense or the rent increase necessary to amortize the cost of the improvements in full. No other financing method shall be used. No improvement shall be artificially divided so as to qualify under the provisions of this subparagraph.

(b) Any rent increase necessary to amortize a cost pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection shall not extend beyond the period required to accomplish the agreed amortization.

(c) The cabinet secretary shall amend a lease to reflect a rent increase necessary to amortize a cost pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, and the amendment shall state that the rent increase is for the purpose of amortizing this cost. [~~The cabinet may amend a lease of private property to provide for an increase in the rental rate when the lessor has made improvements in the leased property at the request of and to meet the needs of the state agency occupying the premises, if the improvements and rent increase have the prior approval of the cabinet secretary. The rent increase shall be, and shall be identified as being, for the purpose of amortizing in full or in part the cost incurred by the owner at the state's request. Any increase for this purpose shall not extend beyond the period required to accomplish the agreed amortization.~~

~~(3) No improvement of a permanent nature shall be made at direct state expense in privately leased property. No improvements of a permanent nature may be made at direct state expense in publicly-owned leased property unless the Commonwealth shall have the leasehold interest in the property of a duration sufficient to permit amortization of the cost of the improvement over the life of the lease.~~]

(3)[~~(4)~~] Any modification to an existing lease which is required because of an emergency as described at KRS 56.805(3) shall be made pursuant to KRS 56.805(3) and (4) and this section.

(4)[~~(5)~~] The Division of Real Properties, within the Department for Facilities Management, shall maintain a register of all proposed lease modifications which, if approved, will result in the payment of a square foot rate for the leased space which is greater than the square foot rate contained in the original lease. All such proposed modifications shall be filed and kept in the register for public inspection and comment for thirty (30) calendar days. Comments received from the public during the period shall be considered before the lease modification is executed by the parties and becomes binding against the Commonwealth. After receiving comments, if the secretary determines that the proposed modifications are not in the interest of the Commonwealth, he may require the agency to continue operation in its present space or cancel the lease and seek more suitable space. The lessor, under any lease proposed to be modified as contemplated therein, shall be advised of the requirements of this subsection and cautioned that the Commonwealth shall have no liability for any action undertaken by the lessor in anticipation of, but prior to execution of, the modifications of the lease.

Section 6. KRS 56.823 is amended to read as follows:

(g) An explanation of why the Finance and Administration Cabinet chose this lessor over his competition; and

(h) A cost comparison between the cost per square foot of the leased space and the average cost per square foot of comparable space the state leases in the same county. If there are factors which make the comparison misleading, the cabinet shall inform the committee of these factors.

(3) Any lease awarded pursuant to KRS 56.805(2) for which the annual rental cost will exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) shall be reported to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee within thirty (30) days after execution. The report shall state the information required by paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (f), (g), and (h) of subsection (2) of this section and the procedure the department followed to obtain the lease. The report shall state on what basis the Department for Facilities Management has determined that there is no space to let in the relevant community that will be suitable to meet the space needs of the agency; on what basis a determination has been made by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, with the approval of the Governor, that the construction of a building by the Commonwealth to meet the need is not economically or otherwise feasible; and the economic justification for awarding a built-to-suit lease pursuant to KRS 56.816. The report shall further state the information required by paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (f), (g), and (h) of subsection (2) of this section.

(b) Any built-to-suit lease awarded pursuant to KRS 56.820 shall be reported to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee within thirty (30) days after execution. (1) The department may prescribe, by administrative regulations for the issuance by it of permits for the operation of motor vehicles, mobile homes, recreational vehicles, and vehicles transporting microwave satellite television antennae, vehicles transporting boats or farm equipment, whose gross weight including load, height, width, or length exceeds the limits prescribed by this chapter or which in other respects fail to comply with the requirements of this chapter. Permits may be issued by the department for stated periods, special purposes, and unusual conditions, and upon such terms in the interest of public safety and the preservation of the highways as the department may, in its discretion, require. The department shall require, as a condition to the issuance of the permit, that the applicant pay in addition to a fee of sixty dollars ($60) for each overweight permit a fee of: forty dollars ($40) for any vehicle with six (6) axles; fifty dollars ($50) for any vehicle with seven (7) axles; sixty dollars ($60) for any vehicle with eight (8) axles; seventy dollars ($70) for any vehicle with nine (9) or more axles. For an overdimension permit the applicant shall pay a fee of sixty dollars ($60), and in addition, a fee of thirty dollars ($30) for any permit authorizing the movement of a load having a width of from ten (10) to fourteen (14) feet, or fifty dollars ($50) for any permit authorizing the movement of a load having a width in excess of fourteen (14) feet; twenty dollars ($20) for each single trip house trailer permit if the house trainer is fourteen (14) feet wide or less; forty dollars ($40) for each single trip house trailer permit if the house trailer exceeds fourteen (14) feet in width; a fee of eighty dollars ($80) for each annual house trailer, farm equipment, boat transporter, or microwave antennae transporter permit; a fee of five hundred dollars ($500) for each annual boat permit for units in excess of sixty-five (65) feet in length and twelve (12) feet in width; and may require that the applicant give bond, with approved surety, to indemnify the state or counties against damage to highways or bridges resulting from use by the applicant. The operation of motor vehicles, mobile homes, and recreational vehicles in accordance with the terms of any such permit shall not constitute a violation of this chapter if the operator has the permit, or a copy of it, authenticated as the department may require, in his possession.

(2) Annual boat permits shall be issued for any unit, including towing vehicle and trailer combination which does not exceed ninety-five (95) feet in length or fourteen (14) feet in width exclusive of usual and ordinary overhang. The department may, by regulation, limit annual boat permits for units including towing vehicle and trailer combinations which exceed sixty-five (65) feet in length and twelve (12) feet in width to manufacturers and dealers, to specified routes or to exclude certain highways from the annual permit in this subsection if an unreasonable risk of accident or an unreasonable impedence of the flow of traffic would result from the presence of such units. Movement of boats in excess of sixty-five (65) feet in length and twelve (12) feet in width shall be preceded by notification to the Department of Vehicle Regulation, Division of Motor Carriers of any trip to be made under the permit. The department may, no later than eighteen (18) hours after the receipt of notice, prohibit said trip if, because of temporary or special conditions, an unreasonable risk of accident or unreasonable impedence of the flow of traffic would be created.

(b) That the width of the motor vehicle or vehicle does not exceed sixteen (16) feet, including any part of the body or load.

(5) Upon the issuance of an annual permit for the operation of motor vehicle or vehicle described in subsection (4) of this section, the department shall provide each applicant with a publication, free of charge, which contains a description of any administrative regulations which are applicable to the operation of the motor vehicle or vehicle including escort vehicles, safety markings, and any other applicable restrictions. 1. An annual overlength permit may be issued for a towing vehicle and trailer combination which does not exceed one hundred twenty-five (125) feet in overall length. An annual overlength permit may be issued for a straight truck capable of transporting utility poles or pipe on a specially designed pole rack mounted on the body of the truck if the pole or pipe length exceeds forty-five (45) feet. Restrictions may also be placed on routes and the permit use limited if unreasonable risk of accident or unreasonable impedence to traffic flow could be created. The cost of this overlength permit shall be one hundred dollars ($100).

3. An annual overlength permit may be issued for a straight truck capable of transporting utility poles or pipe on specially designed pole racks mounted on the body of the truck if the pole or pipe length exceeds fifty-five (55) feet, but does not exceed ninety-five (95) feet. The permit shall cost three hundred fifty dollars ($350). The Department of Highways may prescribe the use of escort vehicles, and the permit holder shall notify the Department of Highways of each trip or series of trips made. The department may cancel or reroute the trip if an unreasonable risk of accident or impedance of the flow of traffic could be created.

4. More than one (1) type of permit authorized in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph may be issued for the same vehicle. The maximum cost of the multiple-use annual permit shall be three hundred fifty dollars ($350).

Regulations promulgated for this subsection shall not restrict the ability of a permit holder to respond to an emergency due to an electrical or gas outage.

(7)[~~(5)~~] Each motor carrier used in transporting prefabricated wood trusses, used in residential and commercial construction, which exceeds the dimensional limits for movement over a highway in this state may apply for an annual overdimensional permit. The Department of Vehicle Regulation shall assess the applicant a fee of five hundred dollars ($500) for each annual permit. A copy of the permit shall be carried at all times in the vehicle and shall be shown to a peace officer upon demand. The department may restrict the use of the permits to specified routes or exclude certain highways from the annual permit in this subsection if an unreasonable risk of accident or impedence of the flow of traffic could result. The department shall adopt administrative regulations setting forth the safety requirements which shall be met prior to the movement of any vehicle under the provisions of this permit including setting the dimensions at which the transporter shall contact the department for specific, individual authority for the movement under the annual permit.

(8)[~~(6)~~] Any person transporting a parade float which exceeds the dimensional limits on a highway over which it is transported shall be required to obtain a permit as required in subsection (1) of this section. If the float is being used in conjunction with a parade to be held within the boundaries of the Commonwealth, no fee shall be assessed by the department for the issuance of the permit.

The person ordered to the designated facility shall present himself for registration and initiation of a treatment program within five (5) days of the date of sentencing. If, without good cause, the person fails to appear at the designated facility within the specified time, or if at any time during the program of treatment prescribed, the authorized clinical director of the facility finds that the person is unwilling to participate in his treatment and rehabilitation, the director shall notify the sentencing court. Upon receipt of notification, the court shall cause the person to be brought before it and may continue the order of treatment and rehabilitation, or may order confinement in the county jail for not more than one (1) year or a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or both. Upon discharge of the person from the facility by the secretary of the Cabinet for Human Resources, or his designee, prior to the expiration of the one-year period or upon satisfactory completion of one (1) year of treatment, the person shall be deemed finally discharged from sentence. The secretary, or his designee, shall notify the sentencing court of the date of such discharge from the facility.

(7) Prior to the imposition of sentence upon conviction of a second or subsequent offense, the court shall obtain a report of case progress and recommendations regarding further treatment from the facility at which the person was treated following his first conviction. If such material is not available, the court shall notify the secretary of the Cabinet for Human Resources, and the secretary shall cause the person to be examined by a psychiatrist employed by the cabinet to evaluate his mental condition and to make recommendations regarding treatment and rehabilitation. The psychiatrist making the examination shall submit a written report of his findings and recommendations regarding treatment and rehabilitation to the court which shall make the report available to the prosecuting attorney and the attorney for the defendant. The court shall take such reports into consideration in determining sentence. The secretary may decline to cause such examination to be made if the number of psychiatrists on duty in the cabinet is insufficient to spare one from his regular duties or if no such service may be purchased at regular cabinet rates; in such event the secretary shall notify the clerk of the court to that effect within three (3) days after receipt of notification by the court.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 139.590 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the exceptions included in this section, for purposes of facilitating the administration, payment, or collection of the taxes levied by this chapter, the cabinet may, within its discretion, permit or require returns or tax payments for periods other than those prescribed by KRS 139.540 and 139.550. In exercising its discretion, the cabinet shall not create a period that ends other than at the end of a calendar month. Further, the cabinet shall not require that returns or tax payments be remitted any earlier than twenty (20) days after the close of the period.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 139.550, any retailer who desires to file his return on a quarterly basis shall make application in writing to the cabinet at least ninety (90) days prior to the due date of such quarterly return. When permitted, quarterly returns shall be filed in such manner as the cabinet may prescribe. No retailer may change from a quarterly reporting system to monthly reporting without authorization of the cabinet.

(3) In no case shall a retailer be permitted to file quarterly unless monthly payments for the immediately preceding month are made on the basis of taxable gross receipts or total sales price of property used, consumed, or stored, as the case may be.

HB 22, AN ACT relating to sales and use tax.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 139.470 is amended to read as follows:

There are excluded from the computation of the amount of taxes imposed by this chapter:

(1) Gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property the gross receipts from the sale of which, or the storage, use, or other consumption of which, this state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution or laws of the United States, or under the Constitution of this state;

(2) Gross receipts from sales of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of:

(a) Nonreturnable and returnable containers when sold without the contents to persons who place the contents in the container and sell the contents together with the container; and

(b) Returnable containers when sold with the contents in connection with a retail sale of the contents or when resold for refilling;

As used in this section the term "returnable containers" means containers of a kind customarily returned by the buyer of the contents for reuse. All other containers are "nonreturnable containers";

(3) Gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property used for the performance of a lump-sum, fixed-fee contract of public works executed prior to February 5, 1960;

(4) Gross receipts from occasional sales of tangible personal property and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of tangible personal property, the transfer of which to the purchaser is an occasional sale;

(5) Gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property to a common carrier, shipped by the seller via the purchasing carrier under a bill of lading, whether the freight is paid in advance or the shipment is made freight charges collect, to a point outside this state and the property is actually transported to the out-of-state destination for use by the carrier in the conduct of its business as a common carrier;

(6) Gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property sold through coin-operated bulk vending machines, if such sale amounts to twenty-five cents (25) or less, provided the retailer is primarily engaged in making such sales and maintains records satisfactory to the cabinet. As used in this subsection, "bulk vending machine" means a vending machine containing unsorted merchandise which, upon insertion of a coin, dispenses the same in approximately equal portions, at random and without selection by the customer;

(7) Gross receipts from sales to any cabinet, department, bureau, commission, board, or other statutory or constitutional agency of the state and gross receipts from sales to counties, cities, or special districts as defined in KRS 65.005. This exemption applies only to purchases of property or services for use solely in the government function. A purchaser not qualifying as a governmental agency or unit is not entitled to the exemption even though such purchaser may be the recipient of public funds or grants;

(8) (a) Gross receipts from the sale of sewer services, water, and fuel to Kentucky residents for use in heating, water heating, cooking, lighting, and other residential uses. As used in this subsection, "fuel" shall include, but not be limited to, natural gas, electricity, fuel oil, bottled gas, coal, coke, and wood. Determinations of eligibility for the exemption shall be made by the revenue cabinet;

(b) In making such determinations of eligibility, the cabinet shall exempt from taxation all gross receipts derived from sales classified as "residential" by a utility company as defined by applicable tariffs filed with and accepted by the Public Service Commission. Where the service is classified as residential, use other than for "residential" purposes by the customer will not negate the exemption;

(c) The exemption does not apply where charges for sewer service, water, and fuel are billed to an owner or operator of a multi-unit residential rental facility or mobile home and recreational vehicle park other than residential classification; and

(d) The exemption applies also to residential property which may be held by legal or equitable title, by the entireties, jointly, in common, as a condominium, or indirectly by the stock ownership or membership representing the owner's or member's proprietary interest in a corporation owning a fee or a leasehold initially in excess of ninety-eight (98) years; and

(9) Any rate increase for school taxes and any other charges or surcharges added to the total amount of a residential telephone bill.

(10) Gross receipts from sales to an out-of-state agency, organization, or institution exempt from sales and use tax in its state of residence when that agency, organization, or institution gives proof of its tax-exempt status to the seller and the seller maintains a file of such proof.

(11) Gross receipts derived from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property to be used in the manufacturing or industrial processing of tangible personal property which will be for sale are not subject to the sales or use tax. Such property shall be regarded as having been purchased for resale.

(a) Industrial processing includes refining, extraction of petroleum and natural gas, mining, quarrying, fabricating, and industrial assembling. As defined herein, tangible personal property to be used in the manufacturing or industrial processing of tangible personal property which will be for sale shall mean:

1. Materials which enter into and become an ingredient or component part of the manufactured product.

2. Other tangible personal property which is directly used in manufacturing or industrial processing, if such property has a useful life of less than one (1) year. Specifically these items are categorized as follows:

a. Materials. This refers to the raw materials which become an ingredient or component part of supplies or industrial tools exempt under subdivisions b. and c. below.

b. Supplies. This category includes supplies such as lubricating and compounding oils, grease, machine waste, abrasives, chemicals, solvents, fluxes, anodes, filtering materials, fire brick, catalysts, dyes, refrigerants, explosives, etc. The supplies indicated above need not come in direct contact with a manufactured product to be exempt.

c. Industrial tools. This group is limited to hand tools such as jigs, dies, drills, cutters, rolls, reamers, chucks, saws, spray guns, etc., and to tools attached to a machine such as molds, grinding balls, grinding wheels, dies, bits, cutting blades, etc. Normally, for industrial tools to be considered directly used in manufacturing, they must come into direct contact with the product being manufactured.

3. Materials and supplies that are not reusable in the same manufacturing process at the completion of a single manufacturing cycle. A single manufacturing cycle is considered to be the period elapsing from the time the raw materials enter into the manufacturing process until the finished product emerges at the end of the manufacturing process.

[~~(b) It will be noted that in none of the three (3) categories is any exemption provided for repair parts. KRS 139.170 specifically holds replacement machinery to be taxable. Since replacement machinery is subject to tax, it necessarily follows that repair or replacement parts are subject to tax. Repair parts are not considered to be materials, supplies, or industrial tools directly used in manufacturing or industrial processing.~~]

Section 2. KRS 139.480 is amended to read as follows:

Any other provision of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, the terms "sale at retail," "retail sale," "use," "storage," and "consumption," as used in this chapter, shall not include the sale, use, storage, or other consumption of:

(1) Locomotives or rolling stock, including materials for the construction, repair, or modification thereof, or fuel or supplies for the direct operation of locomotives and trains, used or to be used in interstate commerce;

(2) Coal for the manufacture of electricity;

(3) All energy or energy-producing fuels used in the course of manufacturing, processing, mining, or refining to the extent that the cost of the energy or energy-producing fuels used exceeds three percent (3%) of the cost of production. Cost of production shall be computed on the basis of plant facilities which shall mean all permanent structures affixed to real property at one (1) location;

(4) Livestock of a kind the products of which ordinarily constitute food for human consumption provided the sales are made for breeding or dairy purposes and by or to a person regularly engaged in the business of farming;

(5) Poultry for use in breeding or egg production;

(6) Farm work stock for use in farming operations;

HB 315, AN ACT relating to disability and survivor benefits and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 95.862 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In the event a total and permanent occupational disability occurs, the member shall receive an annuity equal to seventy percent (70%) of his last rate of salary. This benefit shall begin at such time as his salary may cease, and shall be paid during his entire lifetime. Any member who retired prior to June 21, 1974 shall receive an increase of ten dollars ($10) per month for each year or part thereof of retirement prior to June 21, 1974, with a maximum increase of one hundred and seventy dollars ($170) per month. Upon his death, his eligible widow and minor children, if any, shall receive the benefits as provided under KRS 95.860.

(2) If the member retired for total and permanent occupational disability would receive from a combination of (a) pension disability payments pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, and (b) workers' compensation payments, excluding spouse or dependent children's allowances or payments for medical expenses or legal fees related to the workers' compensation claim, an amount greater than one hundred percent (100%) of his last rate of salary, then the pension system benefits shall be reduced to the point that the combined payments equal one hundred percent (100%) of the last rate of salary. The benefit shall not be reduced, however, below an amount equal to two and one-half percent (2 1/2%) of average salary for each year of the member's service. Any reduction in the payment shall be based upon workers' compensation benefits applicable at the time the payment is granted, and not upon subsequent increases in either benefit. If workers' compensation benefits are reduced at a subsequent time, the retiree shall inform the board, and the board shall increase the benefit by the amount of the reductions, but not by more than an amount which would increase the benefit to seventy percent (70%) of the last rate of salary, excluding cost-of-living increases. The board of trustees may pay estimated benefits to a retiree, upon qualification for the benefits, based upon an estimate of workers' compensation benefits until such amounts are actually determined, at which time a final calculation of the actual benefits shall be determined and the account corrected retroactive to the effective date of the benefit. If workers' compensation benefits are paid in lump sums, the board shall reduce the disability retirement annuity on a monthly rather than a lump sum basis. The amount of the monthly reduction shall be based upon the life expectancy of the retired member. The board may request the assistance of the general manager of Kentucky Retirement Systems to calculate the reduction in the retirement benefit when lump sum payments are involved, and the general manager shall provide such assistance upon request.

(3) Any member retired pursuant to this section shall receive the same cost-of-living increases granted to other retirees pursuant to the terms of KRS 95.859(3).

Section 2. KRS 95.863 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon total and permanent disability of a member as the result of any cause other than occupational disability, if a member shall have rendered at least ten (10) years of total service, he shall be entitled to a disability retirement annuity. The amount of such annuity shall be equal to two and one-half percent (2 1/2%) of average salary, as defined in KRS 95.851(13), for each full year of total service, subject to a minimum payment of twenty-five percent (25%) of such average salary, and a maximum payment, excluding cost-of-living increases, of fifty percent (50%) of average salary. Payment of this annuity shall be made during disability of the member. Any member who retired prior to June 21, 1974 shall receive an increase of ten dollars ($10) per month for each year or part thereof of retirement prior to June 21, 1974, with a maximum increase of one hundred and seventy dollars ($170) per month. Upon death of the member, if an eligible widow or minor children survive, such survivors shall be entitled to the regular annuities provided under KRS 95.861.

(2) Any annuity for nonoccupational disability shall begin to accrue upon the expiration of ninety (90) days following the commencement of disability provided that if the member is receiving salary for sick leave for a period of more than ninety (90) days, payment shall accrue from the date such salary ceases. If written application for such annuity shall not have been filed with the board prior to the expiration of ninety (90) days from the date of disability, the annuity shall begin to accrue from the date the application shall be filed but not prior to the expiration of ninety (90) days from the date of disability, nor in any event prior to the time when salary payments to the employee shall have ceased.

(3) Any member retired pursuant to this section shall receive the same cost-of-living increases granted to other retirees pursuant to the terms of KRS 95.859(3).

Section 3. KRS 95.860 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon death of a member due to occupational causes, regardless of length of service, his surviving widow shall be entitled immediately upon cessation of salary to an annuity equal to fifty percent (50%) of the member's last rate of salary. This annuity shall be payable until she dies or remarries. No surviving widow shall receive an annuity of less than one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) per month. When social security benefits are increased the minimum shall be increased by a like percentage, provided the increase shall not exceed five percent (5%). In addition, if minor children, under age eighteen (18), survive the member, the widow shall receive on account of each child, ten percent (10%) of the member's last rate of salary until each child attains age eighteen (18). The combined payments to a widow and minor children, excluding cost-of-living increases, shall not exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of his final rate of salary.

(2) If a widow does not survive the member, or if she remarries, and minor children under age eighteen (18) exist, each child shall be entitled to an annuity equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the member's last rate of salary until each child attains age eighteen (18), provided that the combined payments to such children, excluding cost-of-living increases, shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the member's last rate of salary.

(3) If neither a widow nor minor children, eligible for benefits survive the member, each dependent parent shall be entitled to an annuity equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the member's last rate of salary, or fifty percent (50%) to both parents.

(4) If a widow would receive from a combination of: (a) survivor benefits pursuant to this section, excluding benefits for minor children, and (b) workers' compensation benefits, excluding dependent children's allowances or payments for medical expenses or legal fees related to the workers' compensation claim, an amount greater than one hundred percent (100%) of the deceased member's last rate of salary, then the pension system survivor benefits shall be reduced to the point that the combined payments equal one hundred percent (100%) of the last rate of salary. The survivor benefit shall not be reduced, however, below an amount equal to two and one-half percent (2 1/2%) of average salary for each year of the deceased member's service. Any reduction in the survivor payment shall be based upon workers' compensation benefits applicable at the time the survivor payment is granted, and not upon subsequent increases in either benefit. If workers' compensation benefits are reduced at a subsequent time, the surviving spouse shall inform the board, and the board shall increase the survivor's benefit by the amount of the reductions, but not by more than an amount which would increase the survivor's benefit to fifty percent (50%) of last rate of salary, excluding cost-of-living increases. The board of trustees may pay estimated benefits to a surviving spouse, upon qualification for the benefits, based upon an estimate of workers' compensation benefits until such amounts are actually determined, at which time a final calculation of the spouse's actual benefits shall be determined and the account corrected retroactive to the effective date of the survivor benefit. If workers' compensation benefits are paid in lump sums, the board shall reduce the survivor benefit on a monthly rather than a lump sum basis. The amount of the monthly reduction shall be based upon the life expectancy of the survivor. The board may request the assistance of the general manager of Kentucky retirement systems to calculate the reduction in survivor benefits when lump sum payments are involved, and the general manager shall provide such assistance upon request.

(5) A surviving child or parent receiving benefits pursuant to this section shall receive the same cost-of-living increase granted to retirees pursuant to KRS 95.859(3). A surviving spouse who does not receive an increase pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall receive the same increase an annuitant receives pursuant to KRS 95.859(3).

Section 4. KRS 95.861 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon death of a member occurring while in service, arising from any cause other than in the performance of duty, provided the member has had at least three (3) years of total service, his widow shall receive an annuity equal to one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) of average salary for each year of total service, credited to the member, subject to a maximum payment, excluding cost-of-living increases, to the widow of fifty percent (50%). If the member has had at least ten (10) years of total service, the widow shall receive an annuity of no less than one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) per month, and when social security benefits are increased the minimum shall be increased by a like percentage, but the increase shall not exceed five percent (5%). Payment of the annuity shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) The widow had been married to the member at least one (1) year prior to his death;

(b) The widow is at least forty-five (45) years of age, otherwise payment will be deferred until she attains such age, except that if she is or becomes totally disabled before age forty-five (45), or has a minor child or children by the member in her care under age eighteen (18), (including adopted children provided the proceedings for adoption were initiated at least one (1) year prior to death of member) payment of the widow's annuity will begin immediately together with an additional allowance on account of the child or children;

(c) The widow's annuity will terminate in any event when the widow remarries. The annuity of each child or children shall continue until each child attains age eighteen (18).

(2) If the widow has minor children under age of eighteen (18), the annuity to the widow shall be increased one-half (1/2) on account of the first child and one-fourth (1/4) on account of each additional child, subject to a maximum combined payment, excluding cost-of-living increases, to the widow and children of seventy-five percent (75%) of the average salary as defined in KRS 95.851(13).

(3) If the pensioner is not survived by a widow and there are minor children the following benefits shall be paid: (a) one (1) minor child, fifty percent (50%), (b) two (2) minor children, fifteen percent (15%) additional, (c) three (3) or more minor children, ten percent (10%) additional, subject to a maximum combined payment, excluding cost-of-living increases, of seventy-five percent (75%) of the average salary as defined in KRS 95.851(13). The annuity of each child or children shall continue until each child attains age eighteen (18), or, in the case of a child regularly employed in full-time educational activities the age of twenty-three (23). The annuity payments shall be reduced in reverse order.

(4) These benefits shall also be payable upon death of the member while on retirement, provided marriage was in effect for at least one (1) year before retirement.

(5) A surviving child receiving benefits pursuant to this section shall receive the same cost-of-living increases granted to retirees pursuant to KRS 95.859(3). A surviving spouse who does not receive an increase pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall receive the same increase an annuitant receives pursuant to KRS 95.859(3).

Section 5. Whereas the 1990 amendment to KRS 95.859 by 1990 Acts Chapter 118, Section 4, inadvertantly failed to include disability retirees and survivors among those who would be eligible for cost-of-living increases from police and firefighter retirement systems in cities of the second class, and the General Assembly wishes to correct this oversight, an emergency is declared to exist, the effect of this Act shall be retroactive to July 13, 1990, and this Act shall become effective upon its passage and approval by the Governor.

HR 67, by Representative Ridley: A RESOLUTION urging Congress to return the authority of regulating cable television to states and localities.

Representative Ridley moved the adoption of the following HR 67:

HR 67, A RESOLUTION urging Congress to return the authority of regulating cable television to states and localities.

WHEREAS, the Cable Communication Act of 1984 stripped states and municipalities of any meaningful control over cable television providers; and

WHEREAS, cable companies enjoy service monopolies in most parts of Kentucky, a result of earlier franchise arrangements; and

WHEREAS, many cable operators have misused their freedoms under the 1984 Act to impose rate increases, of up to 300% in some localities, to arbitrarily change program offerings, and to reduce the quality of service to their captive customers; and

WHEREAS, the power of cable operators to control the information sent to viewers is easily abused and must be subjected to meaningful public control; and

WHEREAS, public outcry over excessive rate increases and other abuses of monopoly power by the cable industry has led the Congress to reconsider its 1984 deregulation of the industry; and

WHEREAS, the United States Senate has passed the Cable Television Consumer Protection Act of 1991 (S.12), to give local regulatory authorities more power to regulate cable television rates;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. That the Kentucky House of Representatives supports the efforts of Congress to fashion fair and effective legislation to restore some state and local control over the cable television industry.

Section 2. That the House of Representatives urges the members of Kentucky's Congressional delegation to support revisions of the Cable Communications Act of 1984 which will restore regulatory authority to the states and localities.

HB 209, AN ACT relating to property taxes.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 134.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Within fifty (50) days after the issuance of a certificate of tax delinquency to the state, county, and taxing district, the county attorney shall cause a notice of the purchase to be mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, on the person in whose name the property was assessed, and advise him that the certificate is a lien of record against his land that bears interest at twelve percent (12%) per annum, and if not paid the county attorney will proceed as provided by law to collect same. A copy of the return receipt shall be filed by the county attorney in the office of the county clerk in the manner prescribed by the Revenue Cabinet. Failure to prepare the notice shall not affect the validity of the claim of the state, county, and taxing district. The postal cost of mailing the notice shall be added to the certificate of delinquency and, upon collection, the county attorney shall be reimbursed for the postage.

(2) The county attorney shall prosecute the remedy or remedies provided in this chapter that are most likely to effect collection of the amount due on the certificate of delinquency. Upon the failure of the county attorney to give the notices provided in this section, or to prosecute the remedies for collection of certificates within twelve (12) months after the right to collect accrued, or to duly complete the performance of any other duties necessary to collect the claims of the state, county, and taxing districts for taxes, the Revenue Cabinet may perform such duties. In the performance of those duties, the cabinet shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the collection, refund and administration of the amount due on the certificate of delinquency conferred generally upon the cabinet by Kentucky Revised Statutes including, but not limited to, Chapters 131, 134 and 135.

(3) The county attorney who prepares the notice and has it mailed and filed, as provided in subsection (1) or (5) of this section, and performs his other duties in respect to the certificate of delinquency, shall be entitled to twenty percent (20%) of the amount due each taxing unit, whether the tax claim is voluntarily paid or is paid through sale or under court order, and such commission shall be paid to him by the county clerk when making distribution, as provided in KRS 134.480. If more than one (1) county attorney renders necessary services in an effort to collect a tax claim, the attorney serving the last notice or rendering the last substantial service preceding collection shall be entitled to the commission on the amount collected for each taxing unit. When the cabinet performs the duties of the county attorney without his assistance or cooperation, the fee which would otherwise be paid the county attorney shall be paid to the cabinet for deposit in the delinquent tax fund provided for under KRS 134.400.

(4) Any action on behalf of the state, county and taxing districts authorized by this section or by KRS 134.470, 134.490 or 134.540 shall be filed on relation of the secretary of revenue, and the petition may be sent to the cabinet, which may require revision thereof in instances where it deems revision or amendment necessary. The cabinet shall advise the county attorney in all such actions, and may send him special assistance when the secretary deems assistance necessary. A copy of the judgment shall also be sent to the cabinet. If the cabinet sends assistance to a county attorney who cooperates in prosecuting the suits or proceedings, the county attorney shall be entitled to his full fee. On the same day that suit is filed, the county clerk shall be given notice of its filing. Costs incident to the suit shall become a part of the tax claim.

(5) Not withstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, county attorneys of counties in which the previous year's delinquency rate, as determined by the Revenue Cabinet, was less than three percent (3%), may cause a notice of purchase to be mailed out by first class mail rather than by certified mail.

The Committee Substitute to HB 209 is as follows:

HB 209, AN ACT relating to property taxes.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 134.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Within fifty (50) days after the issuance of a certificate of tax delinquency to the state, county, and taxing district, the county attorney shall cause a notice of the purchase to be mailed by first class [~~certified~~] mail[~~, return receipt requested,~~] on the person in whose name the property was assessed, and advise him that the certificate is a lien of record against his land that bears interest at twelve percent (12%) per annum, and if not paid the county attorney will proceed as provided by law to collect same. All notices returned as undeliverable shall be submitted to the property valuation administrator within thirty (30) days. The property valuation administrator shall attempt to correct inadequate or erroneous addresses, and in instances where the property has been transferred shall determine the new owner and current mailing address. All notices shall be returned to the county attorney prior to the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period provided in KRS 134.470. Within sixty (60) days after the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period provided in KRS 134.470, the county attorney shall cause a notice of his intention to enforce the lien to be mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested. A copy of the return receipt shall be filed by the county attorney in the office of the county clerk in the manner prescribed by the Revenue Cabinet. However, the second notice may also be mailed by first class mail for certificates of delinquency for which the tax due is less than twenty-five dollars ($25). The second notice may be eliminated entirely for those certificates of delinquency for which the first notice was returned as undeliverable and for which the property valuation administrator has not provided corrected information. Failure to prepare the notice shall not affect the validity of the claim of the state, county, and taxing district. The postal cost of mailing the notice shall be added to the certificate of delinquency and, upon collection, the county attorney shall be reimbursed for the postage.

(2) The county attorney shall prosecute the remedy or remedies provided in this chapter that are most likely to effect collection of the amount due on the certificate of delinquency. Upon the failure of the county attorney to give the notices provided in this section, or to prosecute the remedies for collection of certificates within twelve (12) months after the right to collect accrued, or to duly complete the performance of any other duties necessary to collect the claims of the state, county, and taxing districts for taxes, the Revenue Cabinet may perform such duties. In the performance of those duties, the cabinet shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the collection, refund and administration of the amount due on the certificate of delinquency conferred generally upon the cabinet by Kentucky Revised Statutes including, but not limited to, Chapters 131, 134 and 135.

(3) The county attorney who prepares the notices [~~notice~~] and has them [~~it~~] mailed and has the second notice filed, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, and performs his other duties in respect to the certificate of delinquency, shall be entitled to twenty percent (20%) of the amount due each taxing unit, whether the tax claim is voluntarily paid or is paid through sale or under court order, and such commission shall be paid to him by the county clerk when making distribution, as provided in KRS 134.480. If more than one (1) county attorney renders necessary services in an effort to collect a tax claim, the attorney serving the last notice or rendering the last substantial service preceding collection shall be entitled to the commission on the amount collected for each taxing unit. When the cabinet performs the duties of the county attorney without his assistance or cooperation, the fee which would otherwise be paid the county attorney shall be paid to the cabinet for deposit in the delinquent tax fund provided for under KRS 134.400.

(4) Any action on behalf of the state, county and taxing districts authorized by this section or by KRS 134.470, 134.490 or 134.540 shall be filed on relation of the secretary of revenue, and the petition may be sent to the cabinet, which may require revision thereof in instances where it deems revision or amendment necessary. The cabinet shall advise the county attorney in all such actions, and may send him special assistance when the secretary deems assistance necessary. A copy of the judgment shall also be sent to the cabinet. If the cabinet sends assistance to a county attorney who cooperates in prosecuting the suits or proceedings, the county attorney shall be entitled to his full fee. On the same day that suit is filed, the county clerk shall be given notice of its filing. Costs incident to the suit shall become a part of the tax claim.

(5) The financing agreement shall provide that:

(a) It may be assigned by the approved company only upon the prior written consent of the authority following the adoption of a resolution by the authority to such effect; and

SECTION 31. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 154 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, the Kentucky Economic Development Partnership is authorized to exercise the following power:

(a) The partnership may provide for the issuance of its Kentucky economic development partnership revenue bonds, for the purpose of providing funds and moneys to the partnership to enable it to exercise and fulfill the powers and authority set forth in Section 5 of this Act, to enter into agreements with governmental agencies and private companies, corporations, partnerships, and other such entities, acquire and lease projects to governmental agencies and private companies, corporations, partnerships, and other such entities, purchase obligations of governmental agencies issued for economic development projects, and make loans or grants for economic development projects, and to enable the partnership generally to carry out and effectuate its proper corporate purposes under this chapter. In anticipation of the issuance of the revenue bonds, the partnership may provide for the issuance at one (1) time, or from time to time, of revenue bond anticipation notes pursuant to the general laws of the state. The principal of and the interest on the revenue bonds or notes shall be payable solely from partnership revenues. Any such notes may be made payable from the proceeds of bonds or renewal notes, or in the event bond or renewal note proceeds are not available, or should the partnership deem it financially practicable to pay the notes directly from partnership revenues, the notes may be paid from any available partnership revenues. Prior to the issuance of the bonds or notes, the partnership shall submit any proposed issue to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee for its review and determination in accordance with provisions of KRS 45.810.

(b) The revenue bonds or notes of the partnership shall be dated and may be redeemable prior to maturity at the option of the partnership at prices and under terms and conditions determined by the partnership. Any bonds or notes shall bear interest at the rate or rates, shall be payable annually or at shorter intervals, and may bear conversion privileges determined by the partnership. Notes shall mature at the time or times not exceeding five (5) years from their date or dates, and revenue bonds shall mature at the time or times not exceeding forty (40) years from their date or dates as may be determined by the partnership. The partnership shall determine the form and manner of execution of the bonds or notes, and shall fix the denomination or denominations and the place or places of payment of principal and interest, which may be any bank or trust company within or without the state. In case any officer of the partnership whose signature or facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any revenue bonds or notes shall cease to be such officer before the delivery thereof, the signature of the facsimile shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if the officer had remained in office until the delivery. At the time of issuance of variable rate revenue bonds, the partnership may designate individuals or institutions which, in the sole judgment of the partnership, have financial market expertise to serve as agent for the partnership for establishing and changing from time to time, while the variable rate revenue bonds remain outstanding, the rate of interest to be borne by and the price to be paid for the revenue bonds. The rate-setting procedures and authority of each agent shall be set forth in writing, and may include a formula or an index or indices based upon market factors, and shall be established by the partnership at the time of issuance of the revenue bonds. At the time of the issuance of the revenue bonds, the partnership shall establish the maximum interest rate to be borne by the revenue bonds. The partnership shall retain the right to remove or replace any agent at any time and for any reason. The partnership may provide that said bonds or notes may be executed only with the facsimile signatures of its officers, but said bonds or notes shall be executed with the manual signature of a bank or trust company designated by the partnership as registrar and paying agent.

(c) All revenue bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this chapter shall have and are hereby declared to possess all of the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the laws of the state. The partnership may sell the revenue bonds or notes in the manner, either at public or private negotiated sale, and for the price, as it may determine will best effect the purpose of this chapter. If revenue bonds are sold at public, competitive sale, the revenue bonds shall be sold after newspaper advertising conforming to the requirements of KRS Chapter 424 and competitive bids for the sale of the revenue bonds shall be opened and read publicly by the partnership at a designated place, day and hour, all of which shall be announced in the advertising made relative thereto.

(d) In its proceedings authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds or notes, the partnership shall fix and determine contractual provisions with the bondholders relating to the receipt, allocation, pledging, and disbursement of partnership revenues, and may enact and determine terms, conditions, and restrictions pursuant to which additional revenue bonds of the partnership may be authorized and issued from time to time. The proceedings, determinations, and enactments of the partnership shall specify that the payment of principal of and interest on all partnership revenue bonds and notes shall constitute a first charge and lien against all partnership revenues before any partnership revenues are used, applied, and disbursed for any other valid purposes of the partnership, including the payment of operation and maintenance costs incident to the operation of the partnership.

(e) The proceeds of all revenue bonds or notes shall be used solely for the purpose of enabling the partnership to enter into agreements or interim financing agreements with governmental agencies and private companies, corporations, partnerships, and other entities, to acquire and lease projects to governmental agencies, private companies, corporations, partnerships and other entities, to purchase obligations of governmental agencies issued for economic development projects, to make loans or grants to governmental agencies, private companies, corporations, partnerships, and other such entities for economic development projects, or for any purpose authorized in this chapter. Revenue bond or note proceeds may also be used and applied for the payment of ordinary and necessary expenses in connection with issuance of the revenue bonds or notes, including, but not by way of limitation, a sum equal to any discount in the sale thereof, if discount bids are authorized and permitted by the partnership, administrative expenses, including the preparation of revenue bonds or notes, publication of notices, printing and other costs, attorneys' fees, and other ordinary and necessary costs of financing, including the payment of fees to fiscal agents for advice and assistance in the preparation and marketing of revenue bonds or notes.

(f) Prior to the preparation of definitive revenue bonds or notes, the partnership may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, exchangeable for definitive revenue bonds or notes when the revenue bonds or notes shall have been executed, and are available for delivery. The partnership shall also provide for the replacement of any revenue bonds or notes that shall have become mutilated or shall have been destroyed or lost. Revenue bonds or notes may be issued under the provisions of this chapter directly by the partnership without obtaining the consent or acquiescence of any cabinet, division, commission, board, department, or agency of the state other than the Finance and Administration Cabinet, and without any other proceedings or the happening of any other conditions or things except as specifically required by this chapter and the provisions of the resolution or resolutions of the partnership authorizing the issuance of the revenue bonds or notes.

(2) The partnership shall assume all bond issuance and refunding authority, power, duties, and obligations as existed on the effective date of this Act for the Kentucky Development Finance Authority, the Kentucky Rural Economic Development Authority, the Kentucky Infrastructure Authority under KRS Chapter 224A, the Kentucky Agricultural Finance Corporation under KRS Chapter 247; the ability of any of the foregoing organizations to issue industrial revenue bonds under KRS Chapter 103; and the ability of any of the foregoing authorities to issue economic development revenue bonds as provided in this chapter. The partnership shall also have the authority and power to issue revenue bonds for any other economic development activity as set forth in this chapter.

(3) The partnership shall for purposes of the Kentucky Revised Statues be deemed to be the successor issuer for all of the currently issued and outstanding bond issues by the organizations set forth in subsection (2) of this section. The partnership shall have the authority and the power to reaffirm all existing bond obligations of the organizations in subsection (2) of this section and shall perform all duties, obligations, and requirements as may be necessary and required under the bond documents relating to each and every such issue. The partnership shall also, in regard to each and every such issue, exercise its authority and power as set forth in this chapter.

(4) In the discretion of the partnership, any revenue bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this chapter may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the partnership and corporate trustee which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the Commonwealth. A trust indenture, or the resolution of the partnership providing for the issuance of revenue bonds or notes, may pledge or assign for the security of the revenue bonds or ntoes, all or any part of the totality of partnership revenues received and to be received. The trust indenture or resolution of the partnership may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders which may be reasonable and proper, and not in violation of law, including, but not limited to, covenants and provisions setting forth the duties of the partnership in relation to the purposes to which revenue bonds and note proceeds may be applied; the disposition or pledging of assets and partnership revenues; and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all partnership revenues. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth which may act as depository of the proceeds of revenue bonds, notes, or partnership revenues, to furnish such indemnifying bonds, or to pledge such securities as may be required by a trust indenture or resolution of the partnership. Any trust indenture or partnership resolution may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders, where a trust indenture has been entered into. In addition to the foregoing, any trust indenture or partnership resolution may contain other provisions which the partnership determines to be reasonable and proper for the further security of the holders of any revenue bonds or notes. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of a trust indenture or bond proceedings may be treated as a part of the cost of operating the partnership, and may be paid from partnership revenues pledged or assigned to the payment of the principal of and the interest on revenue bonds or notes, or from any other funds properly available to the partnership. However, the payment of operational costs shall, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, be subordinate to the payment of principal of and interest on partnership revenue bonds or notes from partnership revenues, it being intended that these principal and interest requirements shall be secured by a prior and paramount lien on gross partnership revenues.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, any trust indenture or partnership resolution shall provide that, except to the extent the rights afforded to bondholders by this section shall be enforceable and enforced by a trustee under a trust indenture rather than by the bondholders, any holder of revenue bonds or notes issued by the partnership or any of the coupons appurtenant thereto, may, either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus, or other proceedings, protect and enforce any and all rights generally arising under the laws of the Commonwealth, or granted under this chapter, or under a trust indenture, or by the resolution of the partnership authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds or notes, and may specifically enforce and compel by mandamus the performance of all duties required by this chapter, or by trust indenture, or partnership resolution, to be performed by the partnership or by any officer or employee thereof, including, but not limited to, the prompt and full enforcement of the terms and conditions of all assistance agreements, to which the partnership is a party.

(6) The partnership is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance of refunding revenue bonds or notes for the purpose of refunding any revenue bonds or notes then outstanding, whether issued by the partnership under the provisions of this chapter or one (1) of the agencies, authorities or organizations referenced in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of these revenue bonds or notes, and, if determined advisable by the partnership, for the additional purpose of providing further funds for the carrying out of the proper public and governmental purposes of the partnership. The issuance and sale of the refunding revenue bonds or notes, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the partnership in respect of the same, shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter which relate to the issuance of revenue bonds or notes, insofar as these provisions may be applicable.

(7) Refunding revenue bonds or notes may be sold or exchanged directly for outstanding revenue bonds or notes of the partnership, and if sold, the proceeds thereof shall be applied, in addition to any other authorized purposes, to the purchase, redemption, or payment of these outstanding revenue bonds or notes. Pending the application of the proceeds of any refunding revenue bonds, with any other available funds, to the payment of the principal, accrued interest, and any redemption premium on the revenue bonds or notes being refunded (and if so provided or permitted in the partnership resolution authorizing the issuance of the refunding revenue bonds or notes, or in the trust indenture securing the same, to the payment of any interest on the refunding revenue bonds or notes and any expenses in connection with the refunding), the proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of, or obligations the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America which shall mature or which shall be subject to redemption by the holders thereof at the option of such holders not later than the respective dates when the proceeds, together with the interest accruing thereon, will be required for the purposes intended.

(8) Revenue bonds and notes issued by the partnership under the provisions of this chapter are hereby declared and deemed to be securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. These obligations of the partnership are hereby declared and determined to be securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the Commonwealth, for the purpose for which the deposit of bonds, notes, or obligations of the Commonwealth is now, or may hereafter be, authorized by law.

(9) Revenue bonds or notes issued by the partnership under the provisions of this chapter shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the Commonwealth or of any political subdivision thereof, or a pledge of the faith and credit of the Commonwealth or of any political subdivision thereof; but the bonds shall be payable as to principal and interest solely from partnership revenues provided therefor under the provisions of this chapter. All such revenue bonds or notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that neither the Commonwealth nor the partnership shall be obligated to pay the same, or the interest thereon, except from partnership revenues, as defined in this chapter; and that neither the faith and credit, nor the taxing power of the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on such revenue bonds or notes.

(10) The Commonwealth, for the specific use and benefit of the partnership, may cause to be submitted to the voters of the state in a manner provided by Sections 49 and 50 of the Constitution of Kentucky, from time to time, propositions for the incurring of state indebtedness represented by general obligation bonds of the Commonwealth, the proceeds of which are to be made available to the partnership and used and employed by the partnership for all proper partnership purposes.
